Terrorism, an Unconventional Crime Vahabph. D Aghai, 2011-08 The terrorist attacks of 9/11 opened a window on a host of questions and assumptions about terrorism Terrorism An Unconventional Crime uses those questions and assumptions as a starting point to explore the history ideology movements leaders and modern methodology of what is in fact an ancient phenomenon Chapter topics include the following What Are the Historic Roots of Terrorism September 11 How Could It Happen Here Who Are the Taliban Is al Qaeda Taking Root in America What Are the Tactics of Terrorism Are Rebels Guerillas and Drug Cartels Terrorists Is Islam a Major Threat to Europe Can Terrorism Be Eradicated If Terrorism Is an Unconventional Crime What Are the Unconventional Solutions The book's principal focus is the current war on terrorism The book discusses the various reasons for conducting operations in Afghanistan and Iraq examines the tactics used and evaluates their effectiveness It

devotes multiple chapters to the Taliban and al Qaeda allowing readers to distinguish between the two groups and their varying interests and motives There is also a detailed chapter long biography of the late Osama bin Laden One of the most important chapters is the one dedicated to the September 11 attacks The rapid narration of the timeline of events along with the descriptions of each of the nineteen hijackers and the modus operandi they used to succeed in the attack transports the reader back to that fatal day The gaps in the security system the near misses of local authorities the hijacker pilot who was a near no show the what ifs of the day are brought into sharp and painful focus Finally Terrorism An Unconventional Crime presents factual information to debunk the idea all too common in some circles that all Muslims are terrorists or potential terrorists The book cites a wide spectrum of studies ranging from statistical surveys of terrorist incidents to social demographics psychological profiles compilations of correspondence and the views of religious scholars specializing in many faiths The latter affirm that every faith has a fundamentalist wing that could be radicalized at any time This kind of approach is a hallmark of Terrorism An Unconventional Crime When dealing with contemporary material the book carefully presents at least two different points of view usually starting with official government reports and then comparing and contrasting the opinions of various experts The object of the book is not to impose a particular viewpoint on readers but to inform and involve them in what for years to come will likely be an urgent and important issue

The Healing Imagination Ann Ulanov, Barry Ulanov, 2020 This eloquent work speaks of the centrality of imagination in the life of the spirit Ann and Barry Ulanov describe the imagination as a bridge between the psyche and the spirit Using rich imagery drawn from literature film and their own experience as therapists they unlock for us the healing power of our imagination Imagination heals by building a bridge sturdy enough to link us up each of us to the river of being already present in us to the currents flowing through us and among us in our unconscious life After describing this healing power of imagination the authors go on to show how it is vital in the spiritual life in preaching prayer teaching counseling and politics

Revisionist Histories Marnie Hughes-Warrington, 2013-07-18 Revision and revisionism are generally seen as standard parts of historical practice yet they are underexplored within the growing literature on historiography In this accessibly written volume Marnie Hughes Warrington discusses this paucity of work on revision in history theory and raises ethical questions about linear models and spatial metaphors that have been used to explain it Revisionist Histories emphasises the role of the authors and audiences of histories alike as the writers and rewriters of history Through study of digital environments graphic novels and reader annotated texts this book shows that the sides of history cannot be disentangled from one another and that they are subject to flux and even destruction over time Incorporating diverse and controversial case studies including the French Revolution Holocaust Denial and European settlers contact with Native Americans and Indigenous Australians Revisionist Histories offers both a detailed account of the development of revisionism and a new more spatial vision of historiography An essential text for students of historiography

Conversion as Transformation Dominic Arcamone, 2020-01-29 The process of human transformation is complex and ongoing This book presents a framework for understanding human transformation through the insights of Bernard Lonergan The reader will be introduced to terms such as the turn to the subject consciousness subjectivity and intersubjectivity It will explore terms such as horizon feelings values self esteem sublation conversion dialectic and religious experience The book explores transformation through the way mentors have authored their own lives told their own stories and taken possession of their interiority Transformation is illustrated through the lives of saints and ordinary men and women who did extraordinary things such as St Augustine Dag Hammarskjöld Vaclav Havel Franz Jaggerstatter St Therese of Lisieux Fredrich Nietzsche Katherine Ann Power and Marie Cardinal Transformation is also illustrated through the medium of cinema Babette's Feast The Mission As It is in Heaven Romero Dead Poets Society Ordinary People The Godfather trilogy Three Color trilogy The Lord of the Rings trilogy Dial M for Murder and Twelve Angry Men While the book treats religious moral affective intellectual and psychic conversion as moments of transformation it argues that ecological conversion requires all of these so as to meet the most serious moral challenge of our time

Performance and Personhood in Caribbean Literature Jeannine Murray-Román, 2016-01-11 Focusing on the literary representation of performance practices in anglophone francophone and hispanophone Caribbean literature Jeannine Murray Román shows how a shared regional aesthetic emerges from the descriptions of music dance and oral storytelling events Because the historical circumstances that led to the development of performance traditions supersede the geopolitical and linguistic divisions of colonialism the literary uses of these traditions resonate across the linguistic boundaries of the region The author thus identifies the aesthetic that emerges from the act of writing about live arts and moving bodies as a practice that is grounded in the historically geographically and culturally specific features of the Caribbean itself Working with twentieth and twenty first century sources ranging from theatrical works and novels to blogs Murray Román examines the ways in which writers such as Jacques Stephen Alexis Zo Vald's Rosario Ferr Patrick Chamoiseau and Marlon James experiment with textually compensating for the loss of the corporeality of live relationship in performance traditions Through their exploration of the interaction of literature and performance she argues Caribbean writers themselves offer a mode of bridging the disjunction between cultural and philosophical approaches within Caribbean studies
