

THEME • Governance

LEARNING OBJECTIVE • Explain causes and effects of the various revolutions in the period from 1750 to 1900.

It's time to talk about revolutions.

■ CAUSES OF REVOLUTION

Now before we walk through the major revolutions you need to know, we need to explore the three main factors that got everyone stirred up into a revolutionary fervor.

And the first cause, and maybe the most important, was the rise of nationalism which describes a sense of commonality among a people based on shared language, religion, social customs, and that is often linked with a desire for territory. And this was a new development during this period. For most of human history, as you've seen, large states incorporated many diverse peoples within their borders. Like the Ottoman Empire or the Mongol Empire, or insert empire name here—none of those empires were associated with a singular people that shared an ethnicity or language. However, during this period the notion that people who shared a culture and history and ethnicity ought to dwell in their own territory and rule themselves was becoming increasingly strong.

Some states actually tried to use this growing nationalistic fervor to their advantage in order to foster a sense of unity among their people. And they did this by injecting nationalist themes into their schools, emphasizing public rituals that glorified the nation and its culture, and pushing people into military service. For example, Russian leaders required the Russian language to be spoken throughout their territorial holdings in order to create a sense of unity among the various ethnicities under the authority of the state. However, that attempt at nationalistic unity through language backfired in places like Ukraine and Poland and Finland. Each place had their own languages that identified them as a people and the imposition of Russian only created a more powerful counter-nationalism against Russian authority in those places.

Germany in the World David Blackbourn, 2023-06-06 Brilliantly conceived and majestically written, this monumental work of European history recasts the five hundred year history of Germany. With Germany in the World, award-winning historian David Blackbourn radically revises conventional narratives of German history, demonstrating the existence of a distinctly German presence in the world centuries before its unification and revealing a national identity far more complicated than previously imagined. Blackbourn traces Germany's evolution from the loosely bound Holy Roman Empire of 1500 to a sprawling colonial power to a twenty-first century beacon of democracy. Viewed through a global lens, familiar landmarks of German history—the Reformation, the Revolution of 1848, the Nazi regime—are transformed, while others are unearthed and explored as Blackbourn reveals Germany's leading role in creating modern universities and its sinister involvement in slave trade economies A global history for a global age Germany in the World is a bold and original account that upends the idea that a nation's history should be written as though it took place entirely within that nation's borders Discovering the Scottish Revolution 1692-1746 Neil Davidson, 2003-05-20 Winner of the the Deutscher Memorial Prize 2003 This book is a reassessment of Scottish politics and society in the late seventeenth and early eighteenth century Neil Davidson argues that Scotland experienced a revolution during this period that has rarely been recognised in the existing historiography Davidson explores the political and economic changes of these years revealing how social and economic power was transferred from one class to another He describes how Scotland was transformed from a backward and feudal economy to a new centre of emergent capitalism He traces the economic and social crisis that led to Scotland's incorporation into the Union in 1707 but argues that the Union did not lead to the transformation of Scottish society The decisive period was instead the aftermath of the last Jacobite revolt in 1746 whose failure was integral to the survival and consolidation of British and ultimately global capitalism
