Routledge Handbook for Global South Studies on Subjectivities Sebastian Thies, Susanne Goumegou, Georgina Cebey, 2024-05-09 The Routledge Handbook for Global South Studies on Subjectivities provides a series of exemplary studies conjoining perspectives from Asian African and Latin American Studies on subjectivity in the Global South as a central category of social and cultural analysis The contestation of the Northern myth of the autonomous subject the dispositive that contests subject formation in the South by describing it as fragmented incomplete delayed or simply deviant has been a cornerstone of theory production from the South over the years This volume's contributions offer an interdisciplinary and transarea dialogue reframing issues of selfhood and alterity of personhood of the human of the commons and contesting the North's presumption in determining what kind of subjectivities abide by its norms whose voices are heard who is recognised as a subject and by extension whose lives matter In the context of the shifting dynamics of today's manifold crises they raise questions regarding how subjectivities act on or resist such forms of contestation contingency and indeterminacy A major contribution to the growing body of scholarship on the Global South this handbook will be an essential resource for students scholars researchers and instructors in literature media and culture studies sociology anthropology philosophy law politics visual arts and art history Gender, Sexuality and Violence in South African Educational Spaces Deevia Bhana, Shakila Singh, Thabo Msibi, 2021-04-20 The book focuses on the ways in which gendered and sexualised systems of power are produced in educational settings that are framed by broader social and cultural processes both of which shape and are shaped by children and young people as they interact with each other All these nuanced features of gender and sexuality are vital if we are to understand inequalities and violence and fundamental to our three ply yarn approach in this book Focusing on the South African context but with international relevance the authors adopt the metaphor of the three ply yarn Jordan Young 2010 these being the cross cutting themes of gender sexuality and violence Subsequently the book illustrates the intimate ties that bind gender and sexuality with the social and cultural dimensions of violence as experienced in educational settings

Gender, Transitional Justice and Memorial Arts Jelke Boesten, Helen Scanlon, 2021-05-17 This book examines the role of post conflict memorial arts in bringing about gender justice in transitional societies Art and post violence memorialisation are currently widely debated Scholars of human rights and of commemorative arts discuss the aesthetics and politics not only of sites of commemoration but of literature poetry visual arts and increasingly film and comics Art memory and activism are also increasingly intertwined But within the literature around post conflict transitional justice and critical human rights studies there is little questioning about what memorial arts do for gender justice how women and men are included and represented and how this intertwines with other questions of identity and representation such as race and ethnicity The book brings together research from scholars around the world who are interested in the gendered dimensions of memory making in transitional societies Addressing a global range of cases including genocide authoritarianism civil war electoral violence and apartheid they consider not only the gendered commemoration of past violence but also the possibility of producing counter narratives that unsettle and challenge established stereotypes Aimed at those interested in the fields of transitional justice memory studies post conflict peacebuilding human rights and gender studies this book will appeal to academics researchers and practitioners

Chinese Organizations in Sub-Saharan Africa Terence Jackson, Lynette Louw, Dev K. Boojihawon, 2020-11-09 Trade between China and Africa is increasing year on year while the West increasingly debates the nature and implications of China's presence Yet little research exists at the organizational and community levels While western press reporting is overwhelmingly negative African governments mostly welcome the Chinese presence But what happens at the management level How are Chinese organizations run What are they bringing to communities What is their impact on the local job market How do they manage staff How are they working with local firms This book seeks to provide a theoretical framework for understanding Chinese organizations and management in Africa and to explore how their interventions are playing out at the organizational and community levels in sub Saharan Africa Based on rigorous empirical research exploring emerging themes in specific African countries this book develops implications for management knowledge education and training provision and policy formulation Importantly it seeks to inform future scholarship on China's management impact in the world generally on Africa's future development and on international and cross cultural management scholarship Primarily aimed at scholars of international management with an interest in China and or in China in Africa this important book will also be of great interest to those working in the area of development studies international politics and international relations

The American Medical Association on the Case for Teaching Racism Francis Kwarteng, 2021-04-26 The public lynching of George Floyd re exposed the rotten underbelly of America and this together with the disproportionate impact of COVID 19 on Black and Brown communities the global Black Lives Matter protests and the racist xenophobic demagoguery of Donald Trump resurrected the old debates about medical racism race relations implicit bias vaccine nationalism vaccine imperialism structural inequality police brutality vaccine hesitancy unethical human experimentation vaccine diplomacy qualified immunity conspiracy theories and social justice Then in 2020 the American Medical Association formally declared racism a public health crisis defined racism as a social determinant of health and embraced the idea of medical schools teaching medical students about racism Alas the nursing curriculum is somewhat silent on these questions Decolonizing the nursing curriculum long overdue is therefore imperative This book explores the question of decolonizing the nursing curriculum from the angles of postcolonial theory critiquing the Western literary canon American history literary criticism African literature cultural criticism Afrocentric theory democracy African American literature and critical race theory Peterson's Colleges in the West Peterson's,2009-08 This annually updated and comprehensive guide helps students and parents compare colleges within a specific geographic area Alaska Arizona California Colorado Hawaii Idaho Montana Nevada New Mexico Oregon Utah Washington and Wyoming Accredited regional colleges and universities are profiled with the latest information on financial aid admissions and student body statistics Environmental Ethics Bob Jickling,Heila Lotz-Sisitka,Lausanne Olvitt,Rob O'Donoghue,Ingrid Schudel,Dylan McGarry,Blair Niblett,2021-12-07 This well constructed and highly original sourcebook integrates educational materials for teaching environmental ethics with theoretical reflections The book is set to contribute immensely to its aim of taking ethics out of philosophy departments and putting it into the streets into villages and on the Earth to make ethics an everyday activity not something left to experts and specialists Context based activities are presented in almost every chapter While it acknowledges foundational theories in environmental ethics and the work that they continue to do it wholeheartedly embraces a growing body of literature that emphasises contextual process oriented and place based approaches to ethical reflection deliberation and action It walks on the ground and isn't afraid to get a little dirty or to seek joy in earthly relationships And it ultimately breaks with much Western academic tradition by framing ethics in a storied world thus making room to move beyond Euro American perspectives in environmental issues This work will be of interest to school teachers and other non formal and informal educators teacher educators college instructors university professors and other professionals who wish to bring environmental ethics to the forefront of their pedagogical practices
