Reimagining Nigeria's Educational System Joseph A. Balogun,2023-09-20 This book assesses the challenges within the Nigerian educational system and provides a concrete plan to revitalize the low performing system by strengthening high stakes testing at all levels In Nigeria many citizens believe that the solution to the country s low performance in education is to eliminate high stakes standardized testing High stakes testing refers to applying standardized student achievement tests as a primary mechanism to evaluate students teachers and their school s performance This book argues that the poor quality of education and low ranking of Nigeria s educational system is not related to the negative consequences of high stakes testing but rather is due to many intrinsic factors By conducting a comparative analysis of six high performing education systems worldwide the book offers a comparative summative evaluation of the educational system and offers recommendations This book will be of interest to policymakers and scholars in the fields of African education higher education quality and global studies African studies management and administration leadership and professional development studies Joseph Abiodun Balogun is former Dean and retired Distinguished University Professor at the College of Health Sciences Chicago State University USA Visiting Professor Program Consultant at the Centre of Excellence in Reproductive Health Innovation University of Benin Nigeria and President CEO Joseph Rehabilitation Center Tinley Park Illinois USA A Nation and Not a Rabble Diarmaid Ferriter,2017-02-21 The renowned Irish historian delivers an excellent scholarly reevaluation of the 1916 Easter Rebellion and the turbulent decade that followed Library Journal On Easter Monday of 1916 the Irish Republican Brotherhood launched an armed uprising against British rule that would continue for six days But Easter Rising was only the beginning of an ongoing revolutionary struggle In A Nation and Not a Rabble Diarmaid Ferriter presents a fresh look at Ireland from 1913 1923 drawing from newly available historical sources as well as the testimonies of the people who lived and fought through this extraordinary period Ferriter highlights the gulf between rhetoric and reality in politics and violence the role of women the battle for material survival the impact of key Irish unionist and republican leaders as well as conflicts over health land religion law and order and welfare Internationalizing Rural Science Teacher Preparation Gayle A. Buck,Vesna Dimitrieska,Valarie L. Akerson,2023-11-23 This edited volume discusses the need to increase quantity and enhance quality of science education focused on preparing rural students to thrive in an interconnected interdependent and complex world It acknowledges that globally integrated education incorporates local knowledge and culture with global trends Additionally it highlights globally competent science teaching is not included in most preparation programs and teachers enter schools unprepared to address students needs Rural schools lack opportunities to keep up with reform efforts and may have limited experiences with diversity particularly at the global level These chapters describe globalization in authors respective academic institutions by sharing global competence action research projects for preservice teachers The studies presented were conducted in elementary and secondary science methods and science content courses The book s research is unique as the contributors have carried out action research in science teacher preparation programs and participated in peer discussions that helped them fill gaps in global science teaching while advancing the field of teacher preparation programs
