Korea James Hoare, Susan Pares, 1997 The two Korean states are heirs to a great artistic and cultural tradition Moreover they share a long sometimes bitter historical experience culminating in forty years of Japanese colonial rule Although liberated in 1945 Korea was divided Two states emerged a communist North and an autocratic South In 1950 the North failed in an attempt at reunification by force and the resultant Korean War intensified the hostility which continues to this day Since the end of the war South Korea has become one of the world s economic success stories North Korea has been less successful but attracts interest for its unique development as a Marxist state

Taekwondo Udo Moenig, 2015-04-10 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the historical political and technical evolution of taekwondo Many of the supposedly traditional and ancient Korean cultural elements attached to taekwondo are in fact remnants of East Asia s modernization drive and largely inherited from the Japanese martial arts The current historical portrayal has created an obstacle to a clear understanding of the history of taekwondo and presents problems and contradictions in philosophy and training methodology Using rich empirical data including interviews with leading figures in the field this book brings together martial arts philosophy with an analysis of the technical aspects and the development of taekwondo and provides a detailed comparison of karate and taekwondo techniques It debunks nationalistic mythology surrounding taekwondo to provide a reinterpretation of taekwondo s evolution

Martial Arts in Asia Fan Hong,Gwang Ok,2019-12-18 The reawakening of Asian martial arts is a distinct example of cultural hybridity in a global setting This book deals with history of Asian martial arts in the contexts of tradition religion philosophy politics and culture It attempts to deepen the study of martial arts studies in their transformation from traditional to modern sports It is also important that this book explores how Asian martial arts including Shaolin martial arts and Taekwondo have worked as tools for national advocate of identities among Asians in order to overcome various national hardships and to promote nationalism in the modern eras The Asian martial arts certainly have been transformed in both nature and content into unique modern sports and they have contributed to establishing cultural homogeneity in Asia This phenomenon can be applied to the global community The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue in the International Journal of the History of Sport
