Making the History of Computing Relevant Arthur Tatnall, Tilly Blyth, Roger Johnson, 2013-12-06 This book constitutes the refereed post proceedings of the IFIP WG 9.7 International Conference on the History of Computing HC 2013 held in London UK in June 2013 The 29 revised full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from numerous submissions The papers cover a wide range of topics related to the history of computing and offer a number of different approaches to making this history relevant These range from discussion of approaches to describing and analyzing the history through storytelling and education to description of various collections working installations and reconstruction projects The papers have been organized in the following topical sections the importance of storytelling in museums spotlight on some key collections and their future plans thoughts on expanding the audience for computing history spotlight on some research projects integrating history with computer science education putting the history of computing into different contexts celebrating nostalgia for games and its potential as Trojan horse the importance and challenges of working installations and reconstruction stories Inclusive Educational Administration Mary Konya Weishaar, Phillip M. Weishaar, John C. Borsa, 2014-01-30 The belief that regular and special education administrators should work together to create and maintain successful education programs for all students is not new nor is the assumption that administrator preparation programs should foster the development of an inclusive approach yet this critical educational partnership has not reached its full potential Despite the lack of agreement within the federal legislative branch on exactly what should be changed within our education system some promising points of consensus have emerged competitive grants college and career readiness multi tiered systems of support common core standards a rewards based rather than punitive system for school improvement the critical role of effective teachers and principals increased school choice options and evidence based learning strategies particularly in high need schools The third edition stresses the importance of these key points Each chapter features case studies that simulate real life situations readers are likely to encounter in their careers as administrators Within the safety of the classroom they will rehearse controversial scenarios involving inclusive school governance school reform identification and placement conflict resolution program evaluation fiscal issues transportation and discipline Enhanced practice situations and role play exercises emphasize the special education administrator's role in resolving difficult situations The case study approach is an effective learning tool for aspiring special and regular education administrators and instructors alike fostering enthusiastic classroom discussion and critical thinking about potential solutions to today's complex problems in inclusive educational administration
