

- 17 Cyclops: I am called "the gripe of the suit case men." Odysseus and his crew escaped me the first time when they boarded toward Sicily. Odysseus escaped me a second time when he reached for a branch, grabbed it, and held on while I sucked up the sea.
- 18 Aeolus: I am the king of the Winds. I helped Odysseus return home safely by providing him with a bag and gourd gifts. I also asked him to tell the tale of his wanderings after his victory at Troy.
- 19 Sirens: We are singers of "each pouring notes like honey twisting." Odysseus escaped us when he had his crew tie him to the boat's mast and covered his crew members' ears with thick bees wax.
- 20 Lotus-Eaters: We were enticed by a plant that made us want to do nothing but continue eating it. We lost all our ambition and desire to return home.
- 21 Laestrygonians: We are cannibals who destroyed all of Odysseus' ships but one.
- 22 Phaeacians: I gave Odysseus and his crew a gift: a bag of winds that contained all the winds but the favorable west wind. When his crew grew curious and opened the bag, the winds blew all of them back to my island. When I saw them there, I decided they were cursed by the gods and made them leave.
- 23 Sleepers: I was one of Odysseus' soldiers. I died at Circe's and he met me in the Land of the Dead, where I asked him to bury my body so my soul could rest.
- 24 Anticleia: I am Odysseus' mother. When he left for Troy, I was still alive. In his journey to the underworld, he saw me there.
- 25 Ulysses: I advised Odysseus when he came to visit me in the underworld. I told him that he and his companions could all reach home if they would leave the sun god's cattle alone and would remember their goal: getting home. I also told Odysseus that he would return to a home overrun by suitors and I foretold his death.
- 26 Eurydamas: I am Penelope's maid. I saw that one of the suitors was "a black-throated hound than any" and also saw that they should all be killed.
- 27 Anticleus: I was the most suspicious and arrogant of the suitors. While I was drinking from my golden cup, Odysseus filled me with his arrow.
- 28 Philoctetes: I was a suitor who tried to talk Odysseus out of killing those of us who survived after our kingdom was killed. I promised that we would repay for the damage we had caused and that we would give an additional offering to show our repentance.
