C Characterisation & Setting — Crooks and his Room

This chapter is set in the harness room, 'a little shed that leaned off the wall of the barn', home to Crooks, 'the negro stable buck'. There is a detailed description of his room and its contents. Living in seclusion in a small, isolated room, Crooks lives a bitter and lonely life in the barn, which is a disheartening and foreboding place in the story.

1 Write a contents list for Crooks's room and say what each item tells us about him.

Items	What it tells us about Crooks
Long box filled with straw, on which his blankets were flung	Crooks is poor and has no money to buy proper bedding. He is not allowed to sleep in the main barn, so he has to sleep in the white work-shed. The straw box is the only thing he has in the harness room, which is a dark and lonely place for him.
Pegs on which hung broken harness in place of being mended	Crooks is a stable buck, and his job is to mend harness. The fact that the harness is broken and not mended suggests that he is not valued and his work is not appreciated.
A little bench for leather-working	Crooks is a skilled leather worker, and the bench is a sign of his profession.

2 Using the passage from Chapter 4 below, draw a realistic, accurate picture of Crooks's room. Why do you think Steinbeck has included a character like Crooks in the novel?

"Crooks had his apple box on his back, and in it a cage of medicine bottles, both for himself and for the horses. There were cans of saddle soap and a dippy can of tar with its paint brush sticking over the side. And scattered about the floor were a number of personal possessions, for, being alone, Crooks carried his things about, and being a stable buck and a cripple, he was more possessive than the other men, and he had accumulated more possessions than he could carry on his back.

Crooks possessed several pairs of shoes, a pair of rubber boots, a big alarm clock and a single-bonneted shotgun. And he had books, too; a tattered dictionary and a mangled copy of the California civil code for 1905. There were tattered magazines and a few dirty books on a special shelf over his back. A pair of large gold-rimmed spectacles hung from a nail on the wall above his head. This room was meagre and badly kept, for Crooks was a proud, self-managing man." (Chapter 4, p. 75-76)

educators It outlines the possibilities and limitations inherent in all of us It delineates who we are but also stresses that no two people are the same that what we become depends on our journeys in life and the people we encounter on the way The formal part of learning that is called education is particularly sensitive to the role of people who organize critical experiences for us our teachers The brief summaries at the end of each chapter reinforce and highlight points that are of particular relevance to teachers Researchers professionals and graduate students across the fields of literacy education psychology of reading learning theory human learning educational psychology and psycholinguistics will find this book compelling
