

WELCOME BACK

Dearest Bobcat Families!!

We are more than excited to welcome everyone back for the 2020-2021 school year! Last year was defined by an immense amount of change for our school as a whole, our staff, parents and our students alike. As an entire family, we displayed a great deal of resilience in the times of unrest and uncertainty. We thank each and everyone of you for your undeniable support and trust during the year, but especially over the last few months.

In light of this, if we have learned nothing else it is the value of teamwork! So it is fitting I announce our theme for this upcoming school year as "Teamwork Makes the Dream Work"! We MUST work together for the safety, health and wellbeing of EVERYONE!

As we enter into a new way of work, procedures regarding visiting the campus will change and be different than any other year. We are working diligently with our district leadership and monitoring CDC, state and district guidelines to ensure we are making the best decisions for our Bellamy family! As difficult as change may be, it is CRITICAL we all become comfortable with this new way of work so we can remain SAFE and IN SCHOOLS!

We will be welcoming new members to our family this year! On the next page, please learn more about these dynamic educators. I know you will be just as welcoming to them as you were when I came to Bellamy. I cannot wait to enter this year with the joy of seeing everyone's faces in our newly renovated school that is eagerly awaiting your arrival!

With Love and Respect,

Jessica Hessler and Daniel Ruiz

Parents Gabbie Stroud, 2020-02-04 In this funny heartfelt and passionate call to arms Gabbie Stroud makes a plea to all parents to understand their roles as their children's lifelong teachers and show how they can best help their kids teachers and schools achieve the best results for the next generation of leaders Written by Gabbie Stroud author of the national bestseller Teacher Dear Parents is a passionate call to arms for all parents to understand their role as their children's lifelong teachers showing how they can help their kids educators and schools achieve the best outcomes for the next generation So many Australian parents are buying the government line about standardised testing of students through programs like NAPLAN and My School which make them think they are getting results because of rankings and comparisons But they don't seem to realise that these new forms of assessment are actually negatively affecting our kids ability to gain the crucial life skills and appreciation for learning that have been and should be the main aim of teaching In Dear Parents a funny heartfelt and impassioned series of letters to the mothers fathers and caregivers of Australia Gabbie Stroud makes a plea to all parents to understand the fundamental changes to the way their children are being taught and the results of this process on the development of future generations She wants parents to recognise their responsibility as their children's primary educators and to appreciate the lifelong benefits that committed and dedicated school teachers can bring to their kids A moving and inspiring journey through teaching and learning and all they can be If you have a young person in your life or know somebody who does please read this book Morris Gleitzman Australian Children's Laureate Gabbie Stroud's Dear Parents is a crucial bridge between two important pillars in education parents and teachers but most importantly it holds at its passionate heart the best interests of children If you want to understand the way your children are being educated in these challenging times and whether the system is fit for purpose you must read this funny informative and eye opening book Lucy Clark author of the critically acclaimed Beautiful Failures School Sport Psychology Charles A. Maher, 2005

Because participation in sports is an integral part of the educational experience for students in both public and private schools it's essential that school psychologists and counselors have a solid foundation to help ensure the well being of student athletes School Sport Psychology is a comprehensive overview of this fast growing field with guidelines for school psychologists who want to gain a better understanding of sport psychology to extend their skills and enhance their effectiveness The book presents perspectives programs and procedures for working with administrators and coaches to help students develop physically mentally and emotionally Pathway to Excellence Dennis M. Docheff, 2011-03 The purpose of this book is to provide athletic coaches with simple methods to enhance their coaching technique Coaching is teaching Therefore coaches must look at their teaching effectiveness in order to become better coaches In addition the athletic arena provides a wonderful opportunity for a Christian witness Often coaches find it difficult to form a marriage between their coaching and a Christian lifestyle This book intends to meld the two together providing clear effective teacher education and biblical advice to Christian coaches The book also provides selected scriptures from God s Word Can a Christian coach really make a difference How can one Christian coach save the world of sport Well first there is more than one Christian coach out there Second if there was only one Christian coach willing to go to battle with Christ they would fight and win One coach plus Jesus equals a majority Recall that it appeared as though David didn t stand a chance when he went to fight Goliath David was not alone David knew that God would be with him Was he afraid Maybe but his faith in God was greater than his fear Hopefully this book motivates coaches to allow their faith in Christ to shine through their coaching style and behavior
