some elements and not others What or who determines what is translatable or what can or cannot be recontextualized What linguistic political cultural or historical factors condition such determinations Central to these questions is the way translation negotiates with and inscribes asymmetries among languages and cultures operations that are inevitably ethical and political as well as linguistic This book explores how approaching questions of translatability and untranslatability through premodern texts and languages can inform broader interdisciplinary conversations about translation as a concept and a practice Working with case studies drawn from the francophone cultures of Flanders England and northern France it explores how medieval texts challenge modern definitions of language text and translation and in so doing how such texts can open sites of variance and non identity within what later became the hegemonic global languages we know today

Campbell-Culver, 2014-03-27 Given the extent of his influence on 17th century life and his lasting impact on the British landscape it is remarkable that no book has been written before about John Evelyn He was a longstanding friend of Samuel Pepys who wrote of him A most excellent person he is and must be allowed a little for conceitedness but he may well be so being a man so much above others a founder member of the Royal Society and a prolific writer and diarist He was an early advocate of the garden city but his most important work was Sylva a Discourse of Forest Trees Sylva was presented to the Royal Society to promote the planting of timber trees for the supply of the Navy the employment and advantage of the poor as well as the ornamenting of the nation He was responsible for the first great raft of tree planting and for a great influx of tree introductions to Britain Maggie Campbell Culver's book like Sylva has at its core a section detailing the characteristics history and uses of 33 trees incorporating the advice Evelyn gave and demonstrating its relevance still in the 20th century Not only was Evelyn probably the first horticultural writer to show an appreciation of the aesthetic benefits of trees in our landscape he is shown to be a founder father of the modern conservation movement Exiled in Paris James

Guérin, 2022-09-08 This volume is the first to consider the golden century of Gothic ivory sculpture 1230-1330 in its material theological and artistic contexts Providing a range of new sources and interpretations Sarah Guérin charts the progressive development and deepening of material resonances expressed in these small scale carvings Guérin traces the journey of ivory tusks from the intercontinental trade routes that delivered ivory tusks to northern Europe to the workbenches of specialist artisans in medieval Paris and ultimately the altars and private chapels in which these objects were venerated She also studies the rich social lives and uses of a diverse range of art works fashioned from ivory including standalone statuettes diptychs tabernacles and altarpieces Offering new insights into the resonances that ivory sculpture held for their makers and viewers Gu rin s study contributes to our understanding of the history of materials craft and later medieval devotional practices MLN. ,1921 Provides image and full text online access to back issues Consult the online table of contents for specific holdings The Law Reports : Equity Cases George Wirgman Hemming,1870 The Law Reports Great Britain. Court of Chancery,1870 The Latin Passion Play Sandro Sticca,1970-06-30 In this first comprehensive study of the Latin Passion play Professor Sticca examines the medieval liturgical ceremonies commemorating the events in Christ s Passion and traces their gradual change in character from the contemplative to the dramatic The author shows that while Christ s Passion became increasingly popular as one of the sacred mysteries beginning in the tenth century new forces that allowed a more eloquent and humane visualization and description of Christ s anguish first appeared in the eleventh and twelfth centuries Professor Sticca analyzes the earliest extant Latin Passion play the twelfth century Montecassino codex and compares it with other Latin and vernacular Passion plays He refutes the traditional view that the Planctus Mariae is the germinal point of the Latin Passion play and then offers a new theory of its inception As a literary form the Latin Passion play appears to Professor Sticca as a creation of the Montecassino monastic circle which was inspired by the liturgical services of Good Friday and the Gospel accounts Particularly influential also were three themes that developed in the eleventh century in liturgy a concentration on Christocentric piety in art a more humanistic treatment of Christ and in literature a consideration of the scenes of the Passion as dramatic and human episodes In the course of this investigation Professor Sticca also reappraises traditional views of the origin of the medieval liturgical drama indicating that it should not be traced exclusively to the tropes from the schools of St Gall and St Martial of Limoges but rather to a number of sources Catalogue of Printed Books in the Library of the British Museum British Museum.
