

DIVING BOARD

You've been up on that diving board
Making sure that it's nice and straight.
You've made sure that it's not too slick.
You've made sure it can stand the weight.
You've made sure that the spring is tight.
You've made sure that the cloth won't slip.
You've made sure that it bounces right,
And that your toes can get a grip—
And you've been up there since half past five
Doin' everything . . . but DIVE.

Future Poets Rod Martin, 2011-03-14. Future Poets has One Hundred and One Poetry Challenges. Lesson plans, Poetic Devices explained as well as Copyright Free poems for speech presentations. It can be a stand alone poetry unit and is great for substitute teachers and last minute lessons. This book is for all my fellow teachers who enjoy poetry and believe their students will become better writers if they keep practicing. Kids often just need something interesting and challenging to write about that is how this book can help. Poetry with its conciseness, emotion and lack of punctuation is a great way to begin each school year and ease the kids into other forms of writing. Poetry lends itself to success. Anyone can do it. And it's personal; it comes from the student's experiences and emotions. Poetry works well for engaging student writers because it is challenging and yet flexible. There are so many types and styles of poems they can experience. There is also a lot of leeway in terms of punctuation, idioms and slang and how the words appear on the page. The emphasis in this book is students as poets. It's not about studying the famous poets who have gone before. It's about finding a love for expressing yourself that can last a lifetime. It is my hope that this book will help your students come to a better understanding of poetry and eventually feel confident in their ability to write poems.
