

Populism and the Election of 1896

Central Historical Question:

Why did the Populist Party attract millions of supporters?

Materials:

- Populism PPT
- Copies of Document A: Mary Elizabeth Lease speech
- Transparency of Mary Elizabeth Lease speech
- Copies of Document B: William Jennings Bryan speech

Plan of Instruction:

1. Introduction mini-lecture: In the 1870s and 1880s, life for farmers became increasingly difficult. Farmers in the West and South decided to organize politically. Their party was called the Populist Party.

Mini-lecture on Populism: Powerpoint

Slide 2: Review farmers' problems

Slide 3: One of the main things farmers needed was cash, so one of their main goals was making the dollar worth less so that there would be more cash in the system.

They also pushed for political reforms that gave people more power in politics. They also tried to unite with workers in industry.

Slide 4: Farmers began organizing as early as the 1860s. At first they focused on forming collectives (the Grange), in an effort to raise prices by uniting and holding grain from the market. But the railroads and banks were too powerful, so that's when they started to get political.

As you can see with the formation of the Colored Farmers' Alliance, black farmers and white farmers didn't unite, especially in the South. Racism was still too strong.

Slide 5: In 1892, they ran the first Populist presidential candidate and he did extremely well, considering he was a third-party candidate.

Slide 6: In 1896, they realized that if they were going to have their issues dealt with nationally, they had to support one of the major candidates. William Jennings Bryan was a Democratic candidate who pledged to support the silver issue.
