Based on twelve case studies: Senegal, Mali, Nigeria, Niger, Chad, Sudan, Ethiopia, Somalia, Kenya, Tanzania, Zanzibar, and the Comoros, this book looks at patterns and peculiarities of different traditions of Islamic reform. Considering both Sufi and Salafi-oriented movements in their respective historical contexts, it stresses the importance of the local context to explain the different trajectories of development. The book studies the social, religious, and political impact of these reform movements in both historical and contemporary times and asks why some have become successful as popular mass movements while others failed to attract substantial audiences. based teacher education Neuroethics and Cultural Diversity Michele Farisco,2023-11-28 There is a growing discussion concerning the relationship between neuroethical reflections and cultural diversity which is among the most impactful factors in shaping neuroethics both as a scientific discipline and a social enterprise The impacts of culture on science and its public perception are particularly relevant to neuroethics which aims to facilitate the creation of an interface between neuroscience and society at large Time is ripe for neuroethics to review the influence of the culturally specific contexts from which it originated i e North America and Western Europe and to also include other cultural perspectives in the discussion This book illustrates a convergent approach among different cultures in identifying the main issues raised by neuroscience and emerging technologies This should be taken as a starting point for advancing in the search for shared solutions which are if not definitive at least sufficiently reliable to be translated into democratic deliberative processes Learning from Islam Kamal al-Kanady,2012-05-23 Trust is debating the Israel Palestine conflict with a conservative Sunni barber holding a straight razor to your throat Kamal al Kanady An immigrant white Christian businessman from Canada writes about his experiences in a majority Islamic country in the Middle East He is a family man a management consultant and one of those scholarly types that reads history books for entertainment He has been learning not just Arabic and business but learning from Islam about how he would like to live as a Christian This book is a call to humility and inclusion in Christian Muslim dialogue There are more than a billion of each faith on the planet now and the relationship between the world s two largest faiths is too important to be left to the minority of priests and imams to sort out Regular everyday Muslims and Christians need to be building bridges investing in understanding and approaching each other with a humble orthodoxy Perhaps we could start by simply inviting each other over for tea Religion, politics and ethnicity in iran: investigating the case of the sunni deobandis Hoshang Noraiee,2022-06-30 This project evolved out of my research on several other top ics concerning militant Islam among Sunnis in Iran Deobandis and female Deobandi madares Since then several more informants have sincerely come forward to help me update my information on the current research Dilemmas of Authenticity Zaid Adhami,2025-05-07 The past two decades have witnessed pervasive anxieties in US Muslim communities around a perceived crisis of faith As Zaid Adhami argues in this richly textured ethnography these concerns are fundamentally about the pressures and dilemmas of authenticity what it really means to be a Muslim While discussions about authenticity in Islam typically focus on maintaining tradition and competing claims to true Islam Adhami focuses instead on the powerful idea of being true to one s own self and what it means to have genuine belief Drawing on extensive conversations with American Muslims and careful readings of broader communal discourse Adhami shows that this drive for personal authenticity plays out in complicated ways It can produce deep doubt while also serving as the grounds to affirm tradition It can converge with revivalist modes of piety but it can also prompt emphatic challenges to communal orthodoxies Through vivid storytelling and sensitive analysis Adhami illuminates why religious doubt is often a source of intense anxiety

Explore entire pyramids and other ancient sites entirely free of tourist crowds. Drink in views over the Sudanese plains from the granite Taka Mountains. Dive the reef where Jacques Cousteau conducted his experiment in underwater living. Experience Sudan's cultural diversity among the 50 tribes of the Nuba Mountains. Read advice on where to stay, eat, travelling safely, and cultural etiquette. As a staple of bleak news headlines, Sudan has been slow to make its abundant attractions known to the outside world. Few foreigners have heard of the Kingdom of Kush, walked among the isolated pyramids of Meroe, or witnessed the whirling dervishes of Omdurman. Yet those who do make it here are invariably enchanted by its easy-going nature, fascinating history, and the warm welcome they receive from the Sudanese people. This, the only stand-alone guide to post-partition Sudan, leads you expertly from the labyrinthine souks of Khartoum to coral-bedecked wrecks off the Red Sea coast. Whether you're rushing through on the trans-Africa trail or whiling away weeks among rich archaeological sites, this fully revised third edition is your indispensable companion. Delivering Culturally Competent Nursing Care Gloria Kersey-Matusiak, 2024-04-18 Recipient of the 2019 AJN Book of the Year Award.
