Playing the Market Anne Fuchs, 2021-11-22 The relationship between Johannesburg's Market Theatre and the economic and political forces of South Africa's apartheid regime was both complex and somewhat ambiguous. The theatre's two founders, Mannie Manim and Barney Simon, however, from idealistic beginnings, managed to steer their experimental enterprise around pitfalls ranging from censorship, boycotts and recuperation by big business to the difficulties encountered in finding black authors, let alone black audiences. If the place occupied by the Market institution in apartheid society is emphasized throughout the present study, its contribution to the aesthetic of resistance is also underlined through detailed criticism of the plays and authors dominating the theatre. Pieter Dirk Uys, Barney Simon's workshop plays and among others Black Consciousness plays are subjected to various methods of theatre performance analysis. The reckoning that had to come in the early 1990s revealed itself as globally positive; the reasons for this may be found in the updated concluding part of Playing the Market which is composed of more general essays including one on the vibrant Junction Avenue Theatre Company on how the theatre scene in contemporary South Africa started to change. A postscript reveals more specific aspects of the Market situation in the late 1990s when its hegemony in the New South Africa was already being questioned.

Edinburgh's Festivals David Pollock, 2023-08-04 In August 1947 an émigré Austrian opera impresario launched the Edinburgh International Festival of Music and Drama to heal the scars of the Second World War through a celebration of the arts. At the same time a socialist theatre group from Glasgow and other amateur companies protested their exclusion from the festival by performing anyway, inventing the concept of fringe theatre. Now the annual celebration, known collectively as the Edinburgh Festival, is the largest arts festival in the world, incorporating events dedicated to theatre, film, art, literature, comedy, dance, jazz and even military pageantry. It has launched careers from Peter Cook and Dudley Moore in Beyond the Fringe to Phoebe Waller-Bridge with Fleabag, mirrored the political and social mood of its times, shaped the city of Edinburgh around it and welcomed a huge all-star cast including Orson Welles, Grace Kelly, Yehudi Menuhin and Mark E. Smith's The Fall and many many more. This is its story.

Worlds in One Country Denis Hirson, 2011 Worlds in one country is a compact inclusive history of writing in South Africa from the nineteenth century to 1994 that crosses boundaries of language and colour, including prose, poetry and theatre.

Exceptional Spaces Della Pollock, 2018-06-15 Taking interdisciplinary and diverse approaches, these thirteen essays explore the multifaceted relationship between performance and history. By considering performance as both a useful frame for understanding historical practices and a mode of historical production itself, performance in history and performance as history, the contributors chart new directions in such fields as cultural studies, contemporary historiography, museum studies and life narrative research. Geographically and chronologically the collection's sweep is broad, ranging from the nineteenth century to the present, from Victorian theatre to commissions of inquiry in Kenya, from dissent in post-Soviet Lithuania to plantation tours in the American South. Together the essays make up a work that is truly interdisciplinary in breadth and focus. By combining the methodologies of history and performance studies the contributors illuminate the structure and function of cultural production in all its forms The contributors are Michael S Bowman Ruth Laurion Bowman Elizabeth Gray Buck Kay Ellen Capo David William Cohen Tracy Davis Kirk W Fuoss Shannon Jackson D Soyini Madison Carol Mavor E S Atieno Odhiambo Della Pollock Jeffrey H Richards and Joseph R Roach
