WORLD HISTORY

SECTION II, Part B

Time—40 minutes

Use the passage below to answer all parts of the question that follows.

"Non-violence is the first article of my faith. It is the last article of my faith, as far as everything else between. I write because I had to make my choice. I had either to accept a system (imposition on India, which I think has done [formidable] harm to my country or watch the soul of my people bearing birth in a violent way. I know that my people have something to give and I am deeply sorry for it. . . . I am attempting to show to my countrymen that violent non-cooperation only multiplies evil and that no evil can only be sustained by violence. . . ."

—Independence leader of India, Mahatma Gandhi, "Court Speech", (1912)

"The liberation is always a violent phenomenon. . . . For if the fact is all be fact, that will only come to pass after a numerous and decisive struggle between the two forces (French colonizer/colonized Algerian). That affirmed intention to place the fact at the head of things. . . can only triumph if we use all means to turn the scale, including, of course, that of violence. The native (Algerian) who decided to put the program (development) into practice, had to become its leading force, is ready for violence at all times. From birth it is clear to him that this was inevitable. . . can only be called into question by absolute violence."

—Frantz Fanon, Wretched of the Earth, (1961)

1. a) Briefly describe ONE significant difference between Gandhi's understanding and Fanon's understanding of the use of violence to achieve decolonization.

b) Briefly explain how ONE specific historical event or development from the period between 1945–Present could be used to support Gandhi's interpretation.

c) Briefly explain how ONE specific historical event or development from the period between 1945–1972 could be used to support Fanon's interpretation.
