Bishop, 2015-12-22 Winner of the 2017 Outstanding Book Award from the National Communication Association's International and Intercultural Communication Division and the 2017 Sue DeWine Book Award from the NCA Applied Communication Division Using oral history ethnography and close readings of media Sarah C Bishop probes the myriad and sometimes conflicting ways refugees interpret and use mediated representations of life in the United States Guided by 74 refugee narrators from Bhutan Burma Iraq and Somalia U S Media and Migration explores answers to questions such as What does one learn from media about an unfamiliar place How does media help or hinder refugees sense of belonging after relocation And how does the U S government use media to shape refugees understanding of American norms standards and ideals With insights from refugees and resettlement administrators throughout Bishop provides a compelling and layered analysis of the interaction between refugees and U S media before during and long after resettlement An Empty Curriculum Sandra Stotsky, 2015-02-19 Teachers cannot teach what they do not know This country has tolerated a weak licensing system for prospective teachers for decades This weak system has been accompanied by an increasingly emptier curriculum for most students depriving them of the knowledge and skills needed for self government An Empty Curriculum How Teacher Licensure Tests Lead to Empty Student Minds makes the case that the complete revision of the licensing system for prospective and veteran teachers in Massachusetts in 2000 and the construction of new or more demanding teacher licensing tests contributed significantly to the Massachusetts education miracle That miracle consisted of enduring gains in achievement for students in all demographic groups and in all regional vocational technical high schools since 2005 gains confirmed by tests independent of Massachusetts policy makers The immediate purpose of this book is to explain what Massachusetts did in 2000 to strengthen its teacher licensing and re licensing system to ensure that all teachers could teach to relatively strong K 12 standards Its larger purpose is to suggest that development of strong academic standards in all major subjects should be followed by complete revision of a state s teacher licensing system not as has been the case for several decades the development of K 12 student tests if this country wants to strengthen public education
