

Specialization: Maximum possible production that can produce two types of goods: Capital goods are goods that are used in producing other goods. Things that affect this graph: Population, Resources, Climate, Education, Technology, Available Legal System, Institutions. Relative production of... "I" (produced outside of land) that within the scope of our economy. Inflation 200000 made of land. You can see that inflation is our capacity. Opportunity cost - given scarcity of resources, when we make a choice on how to use the resources, what are we giving up in the way that goods are substitutes when they serve a similar purpose that a consumer might purchase such as rice and pasta. Normal goods that are consumed together are complements, so purchasing that one will make a consumer more likely to purchase the other such as peanut butter and jelly. Normal goods, meaning that an increase in income causes an increase in demand, and decrease vice versa. Inferior goods, an increase in income, demand decreases.

Production: A movement along the production possibilities frontier would imply that Society chose a new combination of output to produce. PPF shows the trade off of any two goods, or capital goods and consumer goods. It shows a downward sloping line or curve. PPF is about capacity. Shift of the following would cause a outward shift: An increase of labor inputs available to firm. The PPF frontier model illustrates which each principle? Scarcity, trade off and choices, economic potential, opportunity cost (Slope of the line tells us the trade off, or the opportunity cost. Gains from trade depend on Comparative Advantage. Comparative Advantage: Person who has a lower opportunity cost of making something is said to have the comparative advantage. We should specialize on what we are able to produce at a lower opportunity cost than others. Shifts in the demand curve are caused by changes in the non-price determinants of demand.

Price Change: A movement along the demand curve. A drought hits corn-growing regions, cutting the supply of corn. Movement along the demand curve is. The government announces a new subsidy for biofuels made from corn. Rightward shift of demand. A global recession reduces the incomes of consumers in poor countries, who rely on corn as a staple food (assuming corn is a normal good). Leftward shift of demand. A new hybrid variety of corn seed causes a 15 percent increase in the yield of corn per acre. Movement along the demand curve is. An advertising campaign by the beef producers' association highlights the health benefits of corn-fed beef. Rightward shift of demand. When we see that supply on demand increases or decreases we're referring to a shift in the entire curve. A change in quantity demanded or supplied would be a movement along the curve.

1. One can campaign. A, as the demand for car reduces and hence the demand curve shifts to left.
2. Increase in price of steel. B, Cost of production increases and supply shifts to left.
3. A baby boom. C, because of more population, demand shifts to right.
4. Increase in oil price. D, because of complementary for car, with that increase in price of oil, the demand reduces and hence it shifts to left.
5. Improvements in efficiency. D, Cost of production reduces and hence supply curve shifts to right.
6. The government offers a tax rebate. A, car buyers being cheap, people would switch to cars which reduces the demand and hence demand curve shifts to left.

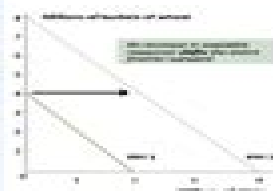

Price is always the y-axis. Quantity is always the x-axis. Equilibrium state of balance supply equals demand. The law of demand: the lower the price, the higher the quantity demanded, all other things equal. The expenditure approach to GDP = Consumption + Investment + Government Purchases (GDP) = Net Exports + Total Expenditure. The definition of GDP has 4 important pieces. The market value of final goods and services produced within a country in a given period of time. National income - wage - entrepreneurial income - profits. Suppose a good number of goods are produced and sold for a running shoe for $1500. That morning company sells down the good, purchase it, and sells it to a jewelry maker for $1,800. The jewelry maker fashions the gold into a necklace that it sells to a department store for $1,500. Finally, the department store sells the necklace to a customer for $2,800. GDP increases by the amount of value of added = $(1500 - 0) + (1800 - 1500) + (1500 - 1800) + (2800 - 1500) = 1500 + 300 + 700 = 3500$. So, GDP increases by $ 3500.

Table 3.5.2 Determinants of demand

Determinant	Example of an increase in demand	Example of a decrease in demand
Consumer preferences	If "they" (consumers) feel a product appeals to them, demand for the product is likely to increase.	If consumers feel a product is less appealing, demand for the product is likely to decrease.
Prices of related goods	An increase in the price of one good through the demand for another, a complementary good.	An increase in the price of one good through the demand for another, a substitute good.
Income	An increase in income causes demand for normal goods to increase.	A decrease in income causes demand for normal goods to decrease.
Expectations	A forecast of a higher price for a good in the future causes demand for the good to increase now.	A forecast of a lower price for a good in the future causes demand for the good to decrease now.
Number of Buyers	An increase in the number of buyers causes demand for the good to increase.	A decrease in the number of buyers causes demand for the good to decrease.

Table 3.5.3 Determinants of supply

Determinant	Example of an increase in supply	Example of a decrease in supply
Input prices	A decrease in the price of an input used in production causes supply to increase.	An increase in the price of an input used in production causes supply to decrease.
Technology	A new technology that improves the production process causes supply to increase.	An old technology that is less efficient causes supply to decrease.
Number of Sellers	An increase in the number of sellers causes supply to increase.	A decrease in the number of sellers causes supply to decrease.
Expectations	A forecast of a higher price for a good in the future causes supply to increase now.	A forecast of a lower price for a good in the future causes supply to decrease now.
Weather or other natural conditions	Favorable weather conditions cause supply to increase.	Unfavorable weather conditions cause supply to decrease.

Gross Domestic Product (GDP)

A measure of an economy's size, defined as the total market value of all final goods and services produced within a nation's borders in a given time period.
