

Back-to-School LETTERS

from the Teacher

FOR STUDENTS

Dear Carlos,
Welcome back to school!

I want to share my excitement and provide you with some information about this fantastic experience we'll face together this year!

I am thrilled to have you in my classroom and am excited to spend many productive days together. There are a few things I'd like you to know:

- It is normal to feel a mix of emotions as a new year begins. Many kids return to school feeling excited, nervous, worried, and anxious. Remember that we are in this together and you are not alone.
- I will be your biggest supporter. If you come daily and do your best, I will help you in any way I can. I will help you with any problems you have, whether it's a math problem or a social problem. I will be your biggest supporter.
- We will face challenges, successes, frustrations, and joys together this year. Through it all, I will help you reach for your dreams, encourage you to achieve more than you ever thought you could, and inspire you to be the best possible version of yourself.
- I am passionate about teaching and can't wait to watch you discover, develop, and nurture your own interests and passions.

Thank you in advance for giving me your best and for believing in me as your teacher.

With gratitude and excitement,

FOR PARENTS

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Anderson,
Welcome to a new school year!

Thank you for entrusting me with the awesome privilege of being your sons' teacher. I respect and appreciate the responsibility of working with you to help your sons achieve their full potential. I will do my best to provide a safe and enriching environment for your sons, and I will work with you to ensure they are well-prepared for the challenges ahead.

Please know that I will be your biggest supporter. If your sons come daily and do their best, I will help them in any way I can. I will help them with any problems they have, whether it's a math problem or a social problem. I will be their biggest supporter.

- We will face challenges, successes, frustrations, and joys together this year. Through it all, I will help them reach for their dreams, encourage them to achieve more than they ever thought they could, and inspire them to be the best possible version of themselves.
- I am passionate about teaching and can't wait to watch them discover, develop, and nurture their own interests and passions.

I look forward to collaborating with you as we work together to ensure your sons have the best school year ever.

With kindness and
Mrs. Britton

Adult Supervision Required Markella B. Rutherford,2011-08-03 Adult Supervision Required considers the contradictory ways in which contemporary American culture has imagined individual autonomy for parents and children In many ways today s parents and children have more freedom than ever before There is widespread respect for children s autonomy as distinct individuals and a broad range of parenting styles are flourishing Yet it may also be fair to say that there is an unprecedented fear of children s and parents freedom Dread about Amber Alerts and stranger danger have put an end to the unsupervised outdoor play enjoyed by earlier generations of suburban kids Similarly fear of bad parenting has not only given rise to a cottage industry of advice books for anxious parents but has also granted state agencies greater power to police the family Using popular parenting advice literature as a springboard for a broader sociological analysis of the American family

Markella B Rutherford explores how our increasingly psychological conception of the family might be jeopardizing our appreciation for parents and children s public lives and civil liberties Involving Parents of Students With Special Needs
