Making Connections

A Laboratory Activity for the College Environment

Measuring Competencies

In this online environment, students are given feedback on progress on the course itself. But students themselves have indicated that progress requires a less linear algorithm that a complex web of interconnected nodes used over longer or less time. The challenge is provide them with developing future abilities. Many online virtual environments are a series of tasks that pass for progress, often providing people with their identity.

Following and explaining connections in one of the most complex systems for which we have knowledge of the world around us is to be able to explain it. It is a challenge to understand the connections in the world as they are, not as they are represented. And to understand the world as it is, we need to be able to explain the connections. The challenge is to be able to explain the connections.

In this part of the laboratory activity, you will explore the connections between yourself and your community. You will explore the connections between you and the world.
