Heather Dewar,University of Florida,2016-05-18 University of Florida has an ambitious goal to harness the power of its faculty staff students and alumni to solve some of society s most pressing problems and to become a resource for the state of Florida the nation and the world Sea levels are rising around the globe and in Florida with its 1 200 miles of coastline and mostly flat topography this is of particular concern The state depends on coastal cities where 75 percent of the population lives and where more than four fifths of its economic activity takes place When economists tally up the likely costs of rising seas they rank Florida as the most vulnerable state in the nation and Miami as one of the most vulnerable major cities in the world When the Seas Rise takes us on an alarming journey from the dying coastal forests where salt killed tree trunks stand like sentinels of a retreating army to the high tide flooded streets of cities from St Augustine to Key West Meet the scientists at the University of Florida researchers in biology geology entomology horticulture urban and regional planning as well as other fields who along with other experts around the state are planning for the sea change already upon us and the greater changes to come They are working around the clock to predict how global climate shifts will affect the state to protect drinking water and slow the effects of flooding to develop new ways to farm to save our butterflies sea turtles Key deer and other endangered creatures to preserve the state s economy and to help coastal dwellers plan future havens for the people and wildlife of Florida The stories chronicled in GATORBYTES span all colleges and units across the UF campus They detail the far reaching impact of UF s research technologies and innovations and the UF faculty members dedicated to them Gatorbytes describe how UF is continuing to build on its strengths and extend the reach of its efforts so that it can help even more people in even more places China's Transition to a New Phase of Development Ligang Song,Yixiao Zhou,2022-11-22

The Chinese economy is currently undergoing fundamental changes In this context the 2022 China Update examines the key characteristics of China s transition towards a new phase of economic growth and development This year s update book covers a range of diverse topics that reflect the complex and changing nature of the economy It explores critical questions Why does China need a new development paradigm and what is the best way to achieve it What are China s choices when faced with the restructuring of global industrial value chains What key roles will domestic consumption play in the next phase of China s development What does the digital transformation mean for the Chinese economy What has been the domestic impact of the Covid 19 pandemic on income inequality and labour market outcomes What pathways exist for China in its transition towards carbon neutrality How does China s emissions trading market compare with that of Europe How will China s carbon neutrality strategy affect the Australian economy What are the political factors influencing bilateral trade flows between China and its trading partners And what is at stake for China US relations The brazilian CFIA model as a mechanism for enhancing protection and respect for socio-economic rights Marina Martins Martes,2023-09-28 This research evaluates whether the new model of investment agreement developed by Brazil CFIA is a mechanism for enhancing protection and respect for social and economic rights The research starts by exploring the origins of investment treaties their development and main characteristics It examines why investment treaties and socio economic rights are related by mapping cases in which investment treaties have already impaired the protection of such rights The research then analyzes how these two issues shall be jointly handled It considers international organizations initiatives to regulate business and human rights and investment treaties frameworks that foster sustainable development as well as new investment agreements models developed by different countries and then suggests criteria for evaluating whether an investment treaty is adequate from the socio economic rights standpoint Finally this research investigates the CFIA model brings a brief historical overview evaluates CFIA's wording and examines how some CFIA's institutional mechanisms consider corporate social responsibility issues In conclusion this research asserts that the CFIA model can be a mechanism for enhancing protection and respect for socio economic rights but some concerns particularly related to safeguarding States regulatory space and providing for stronger obligations to investors and States to protect human rights need to be addressed

Urbanization and Affordances that Promote Well-Being for (Urban) People and for a Healthy Biosphere Stephan Barthel, Marketta Kyttä, 2020-01-30 The world is urbanizing at an unprecedented rate It is estimated that in the near future urban landscapes for another ca 2.7 billion people will be built on planet Earth approximately converting land equivalent to the size of South Africa Such land conversion coupled with citizen densification increasing inequalities shifting diets and emerging technologies challenge human well being and pose ever increasing demand for resources generated by the Biosphere This Research Topic concentrates on the various ways urbanization can promote individual well being mental physical and social health as well as ecological health a healthy Biosphere What kind of affordances for human health promotion can urbanization include What kinds of affordances for a psychological connection with nature can urbanization include What kinds of nudges for pro environmental behavior and consumption decreasing detrimental consumption behaviors can be actively designed in urban settings The Research Topic at hand uses a transactional approach where an affordance can be understood as a non deterministic in situ precondition for a human activity enabled by relations between abilities of an individual with features of an environment We encourage a broad definition of the concept of affordances where the environment must not be restricted to the material biophysical environment alone but also could be combined with social immaterial features We see that the transactional approach of this Research Topic posits that meaning arises in relations between humans and their environment that it will be equally applicable to natural and designed environments and that it doesn't regard dichotomies like city contra nature or social contra ecological Hence this Research Topic is interested in if the transactional approach can be used as a conceptual tool not only for promotion of mental physical and social health in cities but simultaneously for unraveling relations at the micro scale in cities which can be used for solutions that also promote a healthy Biosphere

Federal Register, 2014 The Politics of the European Neighbourhood Policy Agnieszka K. Cianciara, 2020-04-28 This book examines the European Neighbourhood Policy ENP in the context of internal functions performed with regard to the European Union EU political system and its key actors It argues that the ENP has been formulated not only in reaction to external challenges and threats but also in response to EU internal legitimacy needs at systemic institutional and actor level Looking beyond governance approaches and the power of norms this book follows a sociological approach to the politics of legitimation Using Bourdieu's field theory it bridges the rationalist constructivist divide inherent in much of ENP scholarship While analyzing articulations of EU institutions in terms of narrative production reproduction and reconstruction it sheds valuable light on where the conflicting goals ambiguity and incoherence stem from By highlighting Developing Nations responses and usages of ENP narratives for domestic and international legitimacy seeking the book calls for a more outside in perspective on EU foreign policy With the European integration project being increasingly contested both internally and externally this book provides a timely focus on the topic of legitimation and delegitimation dynamics with regard to EU foreign policy This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of European integration and EU foreign policy and more broadly EU Studies and International Relations

Judicial institutionalization of integration processes Ricardo Caichiolo, 2016-09-07 The focus of this book is the judicial institutionalization of integration processes through the development of dispute settlement mechanisms more specifically in the Common Market of the South MERCOSUR to date the most important regional bloc in Latin America The bloc has been in existence since 1991 and has positioned itself as one of the potential regional blocs for trade and investment while becoming one of the important actors in the international community However its achievements have been tainted by the gaps and problems attached to the core foundation of the regional bloc MERCOSUR has been suffering or experiencing internal disputes and disunity due to its complex and low institutionalization a situation which can be seen as being paradoxical Its current Dispute Settlement Mechanism is subject to uncertainty and doubt since its own framework is also under internal and external criticism There has been a series of protocols made in order to tackle the problems of the DSM and to further fix the problems that hinder the cooperation as well as the productivity of MERCOSUR's intra organisation all guided by intergovernmental decision making As such this book seeks to tackle the concept of regionalism and the possible models which have been used or have influenced the establishment of MERCOSUR while discussing the different aspects and developments of each intra organisation This is done in order to evaluate the nature of the problem and future developments that could take place The book also focuses on the prevalence of politicization in MERCOSUR and the pre eminence of Presidential Diplomacy over the path of regional integration which influence the DSM of MERCOSUR and possible developments that might occur in the near future

O Level June Time Table 2015: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. O Level June Time Table 2015 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
