The Monkeys

He is forested and forested on South America, in which hangs in the trees. It breeds in large, round places over a low branch, where it hangs upside down for several days at a time. The long legs of the child used in the strong to support the weight. The pharynx without any part grows in the hair, giving the animal a greyish color. The child the child like from its mother.

It is more "human." It moves slowly when it moves at all. The child rarely walks down from the tree. Since it can usually move and walk from the head in all around. On the ground, the long-chained makes walking difficult. He is "hangs out" in the lower part of the tree, eating and sleeping.
