

Everyday Energy

Edward I. Maxwell

The pitcher gets into her set. Her glove and pitching hand come together by her chin, and she then lowers them to her belt. She looks at the catcher and nods. She brings her front leg up and pauses, standing perfectly balanced on her back leg. Then, in an instant, she steps forward with her front leg. Her whole body lurches toward home plate and her pitching arm swings out after it like a whip. At the furthest point, when a whip would crack, she lets the ball fly toward the catcher's mitt. The batter steps forward with her front leg and rotates her torso, swinging the bat with her eyes fixed on the incoming fastball.

"STRIKE THREE! BATTER'S OUT!"
