

ABCs

of the American Revolution

Abigail Adams
- She helped women's rights grow, and was also against slavery

Black Mass
A riot in Boston in 1770, where British soldiers shot and killed five African American men.

Concord - An early battle of the American Revolution was fought in Concord, a town in eastern Massachusetts.

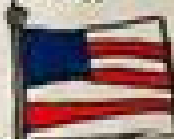

Daughters of Liberty - Women who displayed their loyalty by participating in boycotts of British goods.

England - A division of the U.K., in the eastern part of the island of Great Britain.

Flag - A piece of cloth, usually rectangular, of a specific color and design, used as a symbol.

Gage, Thomas - He threw himself on a bomb, saving the lives of several of his comrades. Although he was severely wounded.

Hancock, John - He was remembered for his large and stylish signature on the Declaration of Independence. The term "John Hancock" became a synonym for signing.

John Hancock

Independence - The colonies wanted independence from British rule. We won after a long hard war against Britain.

King George III - He was the King of Britain during the Revolutionary War. He was also the leader of the British army.

Lexington - It was the battle that started the Revolutionary War. It was one of the very first battles along with Concord. The Americans won.

Mary Otis Warren - She wrote the first history of the Revolutionary War. She also wrote plays making fun of the British.

Naval Warfare - At first we had no navy. Then we started to form our own of trading ships and fishing boats. The British had an experienced navy and huge warships too.

Olive Branch Petition - It was an attempt to let the colonists have their rights, while still maintaining their loyalty to the British King.

Proclamation of 1763 - Made after the French and Indian war, it closed off most of the western frontier which was given to the Indians.

Quebec Act of 1774 - It was passed by the British Parliament. It gave French Canada its complete religious freedom and made the French form of civil law in control again.

Rear Act - Called the Sugar and Molasses Act, it changed the price of molasses from 10 pence to three pence.

Treaty of Paris - Negotiated between the United States and Great Britain, it ended the Revolutionary war and recognized America as a free country.

United States of America - The land that we won from Britain after the Revolutionary war. Eventually, over the centuries, we got more and more of the United States.

Valley Forge - In Pennsylvania, the site of the military camp over the winter of 1777-78.

Washington, George - Leader of the Continental Army and first president of the United States.

Revolution Bicentennial Administration, 1976 Comprehensive Calendar of Bicentennial Events : West of the Mississippi River American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, 1976 The ABC's of Stress Benjamin B. Weybrew, 1992-11-30 Benjamin B Weybrew has developed the ABC model of stress built upon a foundation of nearly three decades of stress research with nuclear submariners With its connotation as a fundamental or elementary principle of stress dynamics the ABC model is based upon three basic concepts in learning and vector psychology Antecedent conditions Behavior and Consequences This model integrates Lewin's topological psychology with the major learning and perceptual theories One of the major features of the book is the inclusion of preventive and therapeutic strategies for acute and chronic Patterns of Stress Reactivity or POSR These intervention techniques have heuristic value for the researcher and teacher alike while being described in language readily understood by the lay reader To sum up the ABC model of stress is based upon three basic facts of human behavior 1 a person's behavior has a directional component symbolized by vectors in ABC 2 these goal directed vectors contain channelled energy and 3 when this energy intersects environmental impediments or barriers stressors of differing degrees of permeability or inertia then POSR of varying intensity are likely to occur Stress management strategies are straightforward beginning with the identification and ranking of stressors and then applying the most appropriate of the thirty six intervention procedures described in the book Suitable for all stress researchers and for psychologists who deal with the management of stress as well as graduate students The Revolution Wasn't Televised

Lynn Spigel, Michael Curtin, 2013-10-08 Caricatures of sixties television called a vast wasteland by the FCC president in the early sixties continue to dominate our perceptions of the era and cloud popular understanding of the relationship between pop culture and larger social forces Opposed to these conceptions The Revolution Wasn't Televised explores the ways in which prime time television was centrally involved in the social conflicts of the 1960s It was then that television became a ubiquitous element in American homes The contributors in this volume argue that due to TV's constant presence in everyday life it became the object of intense debates over childraising education racism gender technology politics violence and Vietnam These essays explore the minutia of TV in relation to the macro structure of sixties politics and society attempting to understand the struggles that took place over representation the nation's most popular communications media during the 1960s

Victory in War William C. Martel, 2011-06-13 War demands that scholars and policy makers use victory in precise and coherent terms to communicate what the state seeks to achieve in war The failure historically to define victory in consistent terms has contributed to confused debates when societies consider whether to wage war This volume explores the development of a theoretical narrative or language of victory to help scholars and policy makers define carefully and precisely what they mean by victory in war in order to achieve a deeper understanding of victory as the foundation of strategy in the modern world
