Transforming Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Ruksana Osman, David J Hornsby, 2017-06-09

Universities face the prospect of becoming redundant unless the way teaching and learning takes place changes. This book explores the idea of transformation and pedagogy. In particular, it will highlight how universities are transformed through a set of pedagogical interventions and stances that integrate a sense of moral and ethical purpose to learning. Actively integrating cultural pluralism in developing knowledge and understanding aspires to liberate the learner from existing power structures by fostering a desire to challenge and change the social system in which we live and connects the reality around us and its many problems to the knowledge generation process.

Campus Student Activism, Politics, and Citizenship in the 21st Century Tshishonga, Ndwakhulu, 2025-04-03 Student activism and citizenship remain an integral part of the governance of academic institutions, democratizing the learning environment and advancing democratic values and societal change. As a result, student activism has become a key aspect of the global higher education landscape. Individually and through the student councils, students have been at the forefront fighting for social justice and equality inside their academic institutions and in larger society by fusing activism with citizenship. Through student activism and citizenship, students demonstrate their power to keep governments responsible and in redirecting the voices of students in higher education's decision-making processes. Further exploration may afford students the opportunity to influence social change by partaking in educational policy reforms and broadening global sociopolitical and economic growth. Campus Student Activism, Politics, and Citizenship in the 21st Century examines the dynamics of campus politics through student activism and citizenship perspectives, academia, public, private, and civil society sectors. It explores how student leadership engages university society stakeholders including management and governance structures and student welfare and institutional policy reformation in defense of the rights and interests of students. This book covers topics such as higher education political engagement and social justice and is a useful resource for policymakers, government officials, sociologists, political scientists, academicians, and researchers.

International Case Studies in Service Learning Enakshi Sengupta, Patrick Blessinger, 2022-11-16 Shedding light on how successfully service learning has been adopted to the existing curriculum and the emergence of a new breed of students who are aligned with the needs of the community and undertake collaborative work to solve real-world issues, Volume 47 is invaluable to both researchers, teachers, and scholars.

Southern Resistance in Critical Perspective Marcel Paret, Carin Runciman, Luke Sinwell, 2017-03-27 From the Arab Uprising to anti-austerity protests in Europe and the US Occupy Movement to uprisings in Brazil and Turkey, resistance from below is flourishing. Whereas analysts have tended to look North in their analysis of the recent global protest wave, this volume develops a Southern perspective through a deep engagement with the case of South Africa, which has experienced widespread popular resistance for more than a decade. Combining critical theoretical perspectives with extensive qualitative fieldwork and rich case studies, Southern Resistance in Critical Perspective situates South Africa's contentious democracy in relation to both the economic insecurity of contemporary global capitalism and the constantly shifting political terrain of post apartheid nationalism The analysis integrates worker community and political party organizing into a broader narrative of resistance bridging historical divisions between social movement studies labor studies and political sociology Inclusive Education in South African Further and Higher Education Tsediso Michael Makoelle, Cina P. Mosito, 2025-05-26 A historical overview of the evolution of inclusive education alongside the emergence of concepts such as of equity and access highlighting how these ideas have evolved been enacted and practiced in the higher education institutions HEIs of South Africa since 2001 Higher Education Pathways Paul Ashwin, M. Case, 2018-12-13 In what ways does access to undergraduate education have a transformative impact on people and societies What conditions are required for this impact to occur What are the pathways from an undergraduate education to the public good including inclusive economic development These questions have particular resonance in the South African higher education context which is attempting to tackle the challenges of widening access and improving completion rates in a system in which the segregations of the apartheid years are still apparent Higher education is recognised in core legislation as having a distinctive and crucial role in building post apartheid society Undergraduate education is seen as central to addressing skills shortages in South Africa It is also seen to yield significant social returns including a consistent positive impact on societal institutions and the development of a range of capabilities that have public as well as private benefits This book offers comprehensive contemporary evidence that allows for a fresh engagement with these pressing issues Global Voices in Higher Education Susan Renes, 2017-06-07 Traveling from Zimbabwe to New Zealand and on to Ghana and the United States the voices of higher education are presented in a way only scholars from these regions can fully articulate and understand The changing world of higher education challenges all of those involved in very unique ways In Global Voices in Higher Education scholars from 10 different countries share their work describing not only their research but also the context in which their work exists This book allows the reader to travel with these scholars to their colleges and universities and discover areas of concern in higher education from around the globe Social Media and Elections in Africa, Volume 2 Martin N. Ndlela, Winston Mano, 2020-02-14 This book the second of two volumes explores the challenges and opportunities presented by the increased presence of social media within African politics Electoral processes in Africa have assumed new dimensions due to the influence of social media As social media permeates different aspects of elections it is ostensibly creating new challenges and opportunities Most evident are the challenges of hate speech misogyny and incivility This book considers the impact of digital media before during and after elections as well as authorities attempts to legislate and regulate the internet in response Contributions to this volume analyse social media posts transgressive images newspaper articles and include case studies of Algeria Zimbabwe Kenya South Africa Nigeria and Uganda This results in the delivery of an original depiction of the use of social media in a variety of African contexts This book will appeal to academics and students of media and communication studies political studies

To Count Our Days Erskine Clarke, 2022-04-13

An in depth look at the institution as the center of many important cultural shifts with which the South and the wider Church have wrestled historically Columbia Theological Seminary's rich history provides a window into the social and intellectual life of the American South Founded in 1828 as a Presbyterian seminary for the preparation of well educated mannerly ministers it was located during its first one hundred years in Columbia South Carolina During the antebellum period it was known for its affluent and intellectually sophisticated board faculty and students Its leaders sought to follow a middle way on the great intellectual and social issues of the day including slavery Columbia's leaders Unionists until the election of Lincoln became ardent supporters of the Confederacy While the seminary survived the burning of the city in 1865 it was left impoverished and poorly situated to meet the challenges of the modern world Nevertheless the seminary entered a serious debate about Darwinism Professor James Woodrow uncle of Woodrow Wilson advocated a modest Darwinism but reactionary forces led the seminary into a growing provincialism and intellectual isolation In 1928 the seminary moved to metropolitan Atlanta signifying a transition from the Old South toward the New mercantile South The seminary brought to its handsome new campus the theological commitments and racist assumptions that had long marked it Under the leadership of James McDowell Richards Columbia struggled against its poverty provincialism and deeply embedded racism By the final decade of the twentieth century Columbia had become one of the most highly endowed seminaries in the country had internationally recognized faculty and had students from all over the world and many Christian denominations By the early years of the twenty first century Columbia had embraced a broad diversity in faculty and students Columbia's evolution has challenged assumptions about what it means to be Presbyterian southern and American as the seminary continues its primary mission of providing the church a learned ministry A well written and carefully documented history not only of Columbia Theological Seminary but also of the interplay among culture theology and theological institutions This is necessary reading for anyone seeking to discern the future of theological education in the twenty first century Justo L Gonz lez Church Historian Decatur GA Clarke's engaging history of one institution is also an incisive study of change in Southern culture This is institutional history at its best Clarke takes us inside a school of theology but also lets us feel the outside forces always pressing in on it and he writes with the skill of a novelist A remarkable accomplishment E Brooks Holifield Emory University

Re-imagining Curriculum Lynn Quinn, 2019-11-15 The book argues that academics academic developers and academic leaders need to undertake curriculum work in their institutions that has the potential to disrupt common sense notions about curriculum and create spaces for engagement with scholarly concepts and theories to re imagine curricula for the changing times Now more than ever in the history of higher education curriculum practices and processes need to be shared the findings of research undertaken on curriculum need to be disseminated to inform curriculum work We hope the book will enable readers to look beyond their contextual difficulties and constraints to find spaces where they can dream and begin to implement innovative and creative solutions to what may seem like intractable challenges or difficulties

Language Contact. Volume 2 Jeroen Darquennes, Joseph C. Salmons, Wim Vandenbussche, 2025-04-21 Targeting a full range of students and scholars this volume provides a total of 50 chapters illustrating the linguistic dynamics and the dynamics of inter individual and societal language contact as well as the dynamics of multidisciplinary language contact studies Fueled by a wealth of data from a rich variety of contact situations its geographically balanced case studies are governed by the triangulation between a focus on language structure and change a sincere drive of sociopolitical and academic agency and the confrontation with an everyday reality that can be unkind to and ignorant of those two factors The volume clearly demonstrates the social relevance of our trade in a time burdened with ecolinguistic challenges

Digital Environments Urte Undine Frömming, Steffen Köhn, Samantha Fox, Mike Terry, 2017-03-15 Digital technology permeates the physical world Social media and virtual reality accessed via internet capable devices computers smartphones tablets and wearables affect nearly all aspects of social life The contributions to this volume apply innovative forms of ethnographic research to the digital realm They examine the emergence of new forms of digital life such as political participation through comments on East Greenlandic news blogs the personal use of video broadcasting applications the rise of transnational migrant networks facilitated by social media or the effects of Facebook Twitter and Instagram on global conflicts
