

POEM: FOOTBALL

Upon the grassy field so wide,
Where young hearts gather side by side.
A game of football, pure delight,
In the golden hours of day and night.

With tiny feet and hearts so bold,
They chase the ball, a story unfolds.
Laughter echoes with every kick,
In this simple joy, they find their fix.

Running and passing, a spirited race,
Learning the values of teamwork and grace.
With every goal, a victory cheer,
In the game of football, happiness is near.

No matter the age, they play with glee,
A sport that sets their spirits free.
In this world, the love takes hold,
As football stories continue to be told.

on the events of 11 September 2001 in Anything Can Happen District and Circle 2006 Although a number of the contributions cover similar material they do so from distinctively different angles for example Heaney's interest in Virgil is linked with the traditions of Irish poetry his capacity as a translator and his annotations in his own text of a standard translation as well as being investigated in its long development over his poetic career while his Greek dramas are considered as verbal poetry as comments on Irish politics and as stage plays with concomitant issues of production and interpretation Heaney's posthumous translation of Virgil's Aeneid VI 2016 comes in for considerable attention and this will be the first volume to study this major work from several angles
