During my junior high school, I completed my junior high school at President Corazon Aquino National High School and I usually spend my time with my friends. Since the lockdown, I have a daily routine with my friend for a Google meet until dawn, and we do various things when we do, such as talk about what is going on in our lives and watch movies that have been shown several times. We have been watched pitch perfect all seasons. I finished it several times. When I am not with them, I watch shows like Mr. Queen and Ghost Doctor. Language Identity, Learning, and Teaching in Costa Rica Lena Barrantes-Elizondo, Cinthya Olivares-Garita, 2023-07-19
This edited collection provides a comprehensive and locally situated understanding of English language teaching from the perspective of dedicated and experienced language professionals and researchers in Costa Rica. The book uses a series of reflective sections that interconnect theory and practice in a non-English dominant context in order to inform and transform pedagogical practices. The chapters depict a wide ranging image of English language teaching and learning in the region encouraging in-service teachers, TESOL specialists and ELT scholars to critically reassess, rethink and relearn teaching and learning as more than a political decision in an educational curriculum. Ultimately promoting the practice as dynamic, ever-changing and culturally situated, the book will be highly relevant to researchers, academics, scholars and faculty in the fields of teacher education, educational research, EFL and modern foreign languages.

The Oxford Handbook of Reciprocal Adult Development and Learning Carol Hoare, 2011-09-06
One of the Best Books of 2011 from the Center for Optimal Adult Development. The fields of adult development and the study of learning have traditionally been considered separate, with development falling under psychology and learning under education. However, recent ideas, research and practices that have emerged in these fields of study effectively emphasize the inherent reciprocal relationship that exists between them. Advances in development frequently lead to learning and conversely, learning almost necessarily fuels development. In this second edition of The Oxford Handbook of Reciprocal Adult Learning and Development, the synchronicity between development and learning is explored further as expert authors advance the latest theories to provide a rich foundation for this new area of study and practice for this interrelated field of study. At the border of two disciplines, this handbook focuses on the capacities of intelligence, meta-cognition, insight, self-efficacy, spirituality, interpersonal competence, wisdom and other key adult attributes as they relate to positive changes and personal growth in adults. Contexts for development and learning, e.g. the work role and environment, are also addressed and mixed in throughout the volume, are emanating implications for research, practice and policy. What emerges is a thoughtful handbook for all who promote optimal aging and is a must-read for academics, psychologists and practitioners in adult development.
