Ferrell Research Scientist, Supportive Care Program Nessa Coyle Director, Pain & Palliative Service Department of Neurology Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, 2005-11-10 Originally published in 2001 the Textbook of Palliative Nursing has become the standard text for the field of hospice and palliative care nursing In this new edition the authors and editors have updated each chapter to ensure that the content is evidence based and current references are included They also have retained the important focus on case studies throughout the text and practical clinically relevant tables figures and other resources Like the previous edition this text has an introductory section of the general principles of palliative care followed by a comprehensive section on symptom assessment and management encompassing twenty one different symptoms Other key sections include psychosocial support and spiritual care providing holistic perspective on care of patients facing advanced disease The text also includes an innovative section on special populations addressing those most in need of palliative care The textbook is a useful resource for all nurses with the excellent section on end of life care across settings In this new edition the pediatric palliative care section has been greatly expanded and includes seven separate chapters on pediatric care It includes a section on special issues addressing topics such as ethical considerations nursing research and public policy perspectives and concludes with a section presenting models of excellence including six international models This edition also offers a narrative on dying based on a spouse s perspective The text includes an appendix with an extensive list of resources for nurses in the field Pentecostal Preaching and Ministry in Multicultural and Post-Christian Canada Steven M. Studebaker, 2019-11-07 Over the past forty years Canada has become an increasingly secular multicultural and religiously plural society Indeed the church in Canada and Pentecostals in particular face a challenging context for responding to the call to bear witness to Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit Like the disciples on the day of Pentecost however we need the Holy Spirit to come upon us and liberate us from our post Christian pessimism We need the Holy Spirit to enable us to proclaim the gospel to the nations people that are no longer at the ends of the earth but making their home in Canada This book engages this new context and considers and proposes ways that pentecostal Christians and churches can respond to the challenges of the increasingly post Christian multicultural secular and religiously plural context of Canadian society
