

Principal Carmela Leonardi's Huntington High School Graduation Speech - 2009

It is an honor for me to welcome students, parents, family members and members of the school board here tonight. Before I present my remarks I would like to take this opportunity to thank the two assistant principals, Mr. Noce and Mr. Stein and all department administrators for their work with students and their families. A special thank you goes to the teachers who are committed to the success of every student and continue to take a personal interest in their academic and social development.

It has become my practice, in preparing for this important event, to reflect on the qualities and gifts members of the senior class have displayed in their four years at Huntington High School. I would like to share with you just some of their achievements and I apologize in advance for only mentioning a few. Members of the class of 2009 are service minded. In fact, many have raised their own money to fund mission trips to New Orleans, Nicaragua and the Dominican Republic. One of our students trains seeing-eye dogs. A number of our seniors achieved the very prestigious honors of Eagle Scout and the Gold Award which, as you know, require the implementation of involved projects that benefit their community. The class of 2009 has many gifted athletes who were recruited to participate on Division I athletic teams. One of our talented graphic artists created a mural commissioned by the McQuilling Co. in Garden City. Another of our seniors is such a gifted craftsman that he was able to build his own boat. He might be called upon to build us an ark in the very near future.

In these hard economic times, Huntington High School seniors nervously anticipated their financial aid packages, many waiting to view all
