Exploring Domestic Tourism in the Nordics Paavola, Juho-Matti, Tiensuu, Ilkka, Saari, Simo, Holm, Jens, 2023-06-12. Available online <https://pub.norden.org/temanord2023/519>. Covid 19 pandemic was a shock to the tourism industry in the Nordic countries. Loss of international tourism both inbound and outbound due to the Covid 19 related restrictions forced tourism enterprises and development organisations to adapt their products and services to meet the needs of domestic travellers. This report examines the domestic tourism sector, its significance and future in the Nordic countries, autonomous areas and in selected border regions between the Nordic countries and investigates practical examples of measures taken during the crisis. According to the results, the pandemic served as an eye opener to the significance of domestic tourism in the Nordic countries and autonomous areas and the future of domestic tourism is generally seen as positive. However, tourism sector developers must work together to realise the full potential of the domestic tourism market.

Financial Sector Assessment World Bank, International Monetary Fund, 2005-09-29. In the wake of the financial crises of the late 1990s, there was a surge of interest in the systematic assessment of financial sectors with a view to identifying vulnerabilities and evaluating the sector's developmental needs. Consequently, there has been an increased demand from financial sector authorities in many countries for information on key issues and sound practices in the assessment of financial systems and the appropriate design of policy responses. In response, Financial Sector Assessments presents a general analytical framework and broad guidance on approaches, methodologies and key techniques for assessing the stability and development needs of financial systems. It synthesizes current global sound practices in financial sector assessment.
