

Sample Personal Reference Letter

May 15, 20--

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is a personal recommendation for Justin Horter. Justin has been a member of United Youth Volunteers for the past seven years. During that time, I have come to know Justin very well.

Justin has been actively involved in our youth volunteer program. He has made a fine contribution to the organization and has assisted in fund-raising projects during the past four years. When Justin began studying communications at his college, he showed a real enthusiasm for his studies. Using the skills he was learning in school, he became an organizer for United Youth Volunteers' fund-raising projects. His advertising efforts for these projects helped them become far more successful than we had anticipated.

I believe that Justin's excellent character and his desire to succeed in his chosen career will make him an excellent employee.

Sincerely,

Norman Mazer
Coordinator
United Youth Volunteers

ADVANCED TECHNICAL COMMUNICATION KAVITA

TYAGI, PADMA MISRA, 2011-02-04 Businesses use technical writing extensively to communicate both within and outside the organization. And so it is essential for an individual aspiring to be an executive to master the art of communication. This accessible and compact book on Advanced Technical Communication discusses how students can learn and master not only the basic skills of communication but also complex skills such as soft skills and skills required for preparing technical documents. The book begins with a discussion on the concept of technical communication and then it goes on to describe the differences between technical writing and general writing and layout and format of business letters and resumes. What is more, it elaborates on technical documents such as technical proposals, reports, and specialized documents like theses, research papers, and dissertations, differentiating them adequately. Finally, the text covers many of the soft skills required today, for example, presentation skills, interpersonal skills, and group discussion (GD) skills. This student-friendly book, suffused with practical examples, is primarily intended as a text for the first-year students of Engineering B.Tech of Uttarakhand Technical University for their course on Advanced Technical Communication. It will also be of immense benefit to undergraduate students in other universities and engineering colleges/institutes as well as technical professionals.

KEY FEATURES Provides comprehensive coverage of soft skills. Lays emphasis on corporate communication skills required for technical writing and producing technical documents by engineers and managers. Gives a critical evaluation as well as text of George Orwell's Animal Farm.
