Shah,2024-07-18 Monitoring and Evaluation of Practice and Methods in Applied Social Research is a comprehensive guide delving into the core concepts tools methods and approaches of monitoring and evaluation M E This book reveals the roots of M E illustrating its evolution from academia into a burgeoning field of science across various contexts The challenge practitioners face lies in the inconsistent terminology used for identical concepts among humanitarian organizations hindering the growth of M E through shared learning Embracing an abductive approach this book seeks to establish M E as distinct fields within social research In doing so it bridges the philosophical gap between novice and expert social researchers and provides a consolidated resource based on real world experiences Written by an expert with over a decade of hands on experience in applied social research this book serves as an invaluable tool offering insights into the diverse landscape of M E enabling students and practitioners to navigate various contexts with ease Nongovernmental organizations NGOs United Nations UN bodies and organizations involved in M E will also find this book instrumental creating a bridge of standardized concepts nomenclature and approaches Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,2005 Global Education Monitoring Report Global Education Monitoring Report Team,UNESCO,2021-12-31 Non state actors role extends beyond provision of schooling to interventions at various education levels and influence spheres Alongside its review of progress towards SDG 4 including emerging evidence on the COVID 19 pandemic s impact the 2021 2 Global Education Monitoring Report urges governments to see all institutions students and teachers as part of a single system Standards information incentives and accountability should help governments protect respect and fulfil the right to education of all without turning their eyes away from privilege or exploitation Publicly funded education does not have to be publicly provided but disparity in education processes student outcomes and teacher working conditions must be addressed Efficiency and innovation rather than being commercial secrets should be diffused and practised by all To that end transparency and integrity in the public education policy process need to be maintained to block vested interests The report s rallying call Who chooses Who loses invites policymakers to question relationships with non state actors in terms of fundamental choices between equity and freedom of choice between encouraging initiative and setting standards between groups of varying means and needs between immediate commitments under SDG 4 and those to be progressively realized e g post secondary education and between education and other social sectors Network World ,2000-11-06 For more than 20 years Network World has been the premier provider of information intelligence and insight for network and IT executives responsible for the digital nervous systems of large organizations Readers are responsible for designing implementing and managing the voice data and video systems their companies use to support everything from business critical applications to employee collaboration and electronic commerce Managing Water Under Uncertainty and Risk: United Nations World Water Development Report #4 (3 Vols.) UNESCO,2012-01-01 Released every three years since March 2003 the United Nations World Water Development Report WWDR a flagship UN Water report published by UNESCO has become the voice of the United Nations system in terms of the state use and management of the world s freshwater resources The report is primarily targeted at national decision makers and water resource managers but is also aimed at educating and informing a broader audience from governments to the private sector and civil society It underlines the important roles water plays in all social economic and environmental decisions highlighting policy implications across various sectors from local and municipal to regional and international levels Similarly to the first two editions this report includes a comprehensive and up to date assessment of several key challenge areas such as water for food energy and human health and governance challenges such as institutional reform knowledge and capacity building and financing each produced by individual UN agencies

World Development Report 2016 World Bank Group,2016-01-14 Digital technologies are spreading rapidly but digital dividends the broader benefits of faster growth more jobs and better services are not If more than 40 percent of adults in East Africa pay their utility bills using a mobile phone why can t others around the world do the same If 8 million entrepreneurs in China one third of them women can use an e commerce platform to export goods to 120 countries why can t entrepreneurs elsewhere achieve the same global reach And if India can provide unique digital identification to 1 billion people in five years and thereby reduce corruption by billions of dollars why can t other countries replicate its success Indeed what s holding back countries from realizing the profound and transformational effects that digital technologies are supposed to deliver Two main reasons First nearly 60 percent of the world s population are still offline and can t participate in the digital economy in any meaningful way Second and more important the benefits of digital technologies can be offset by growing risks Startups can disrupt incumbents but not when vested interests and regulatory uncertainty obstruct competition and the entry of new firms Employment opportunities may be greater but not when the labor market is polarized The internet can be a platform for universal empowerment but not when it becomes a tool for state control and elite capture The World Development Report 2016 shows that while the digital revolution has forged ahead its analog complements the regulations that promote entry and competition the skills that enable workers to access and then leverage the new economy and the institutions that are accountable to citizens have not kept pace And when these analog complements to digital investments are absent the development impact can be disappointing What then should countries do They should formulate digital development strategies that are much broader than current information and communication technology ICT strategies They should create a policy and institutional environment for technology that fosters the greatest benefits In short they need to build a strong analog foundation to deliver digital dividends to everyone everywhere

Network World ,2001-10-08 For more than 20 years Network World has been the premier provider of information intelligence and insight for network and IT executives responsible for the digital nervous systems of large organizations
