Barcode 30112005654915 and Others, 2013 Democratizing Higher Education Policy M.T. Sehoole, 2013-10-14 This book was written with the purpose of analyzing the challenges faced by the post apartheid government in South Africa with regard to reform of higher education It covers the apartheid context of higher education resistance to the system and its ultimate demise democratic processes in post apartheid reform agenda and how this agenda was emptied of its radical content as a result of global and local pressures Highlighted are key constraints in the reform process including the compromise pact agreed upon between the apartheid government and the ruling African National Congress the rapidly globalizing environment underpinned by neoliberal principles within which South Africa's transition took place shifts in macro economic policies of government towards neo liberal policy the inheritance of the bureaucracy and the inexperience of new government officials These are presented in a narrative style that combines the author's experience the voices of key players involved and important data from a range of documentary sources This is the first single authored book in post apartheid South African that has systematically looked at higher education reform Legislation on Foreign Relations, with Explanatory Notes United States, 1974 Resources in Education, 1999 Legislation on Foreign Relations United States, 1962 The Making of a Market Juliette Levy, 2015-11-04 During the nineteenth century Yucatán moved effectively from its colonial past into modernity transforming from a cattle ranching and subsistence farming economy to a booming export oriented agricultural economy Yucatán and its economy grew in response to increasing demand from the United States for henequen the local cordage fiber This henequen boom has often been seen as another regional and historical example of overdependence on foreign markets and extortionary local elites In The Making of a Market Juliette Levy argues instead that local social and economic dynamics are the root of the region's development She shows how credit markets contributed to the boom before banks and bank crises existed and how people borrowed before the creation of institutions designed specifically to lend As the intermediaries in this lending process notaries became unwitting catalysts of Yucatán's capitalist transformation By focusing attention on the notaries role in structuring the mortgage market rather than on formal institutions such as banks this study challenges the easy compartmentalization of local and global relationships and of economic and social relationships Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1971 Introduction to School Counseling Jered B. Kolbert, Laura M. Crothers, Tammy L. Hughes, 2022-12-27 This book is a comprehensive introduction to the profession for school counselors in training providing special focus on the topics most relevant to the school counselor's role and offers specific strategies for practical application and implementation In addition to the thorough coverage of the fourth edition of the ASCA National Model readers will find thoughtful discussions of the effects of trends and legislation including the Every Student Succeeds Act ESSA multitiered systems of support MTSS and school wide positive behavioral interventions and supports SWPBIS The text also provides readers with understanding of how school counselors assume a counseling orientation within the specific context of an educational setting Each chapter is application oriented with an equal emphasis both on research and on using data to design and improve school counselors functioning in school systems Complementing this book is the companion website which includes PowerPoints templates and handouts annotated website links and video links for students and a test bank and discussion questions for instructors This book is essential reading for all school counselors in training as it provides a comprehensive look at the profession and explores topics that are most relevant to the role of school counselor
