Education Studies in South Africa Charl C. Wolhuter, 2020-12-31 The thesis of this volume is that the fields of scholarly enquiry of Education internationally as well as in South Africa in particular despite being fields of virile scholarly activity and output are in need of a major overhaul In this collected work this want in research is encapsulated in three words relevance rigour and restructuring Research in the scholarly field s of Education is predominantly of small scale non accumulative widely condemned as not of a comparable standard to research done in other social sciences much less upon a par with research in the natural sciences and lacking structure in the sense of being anchored in a firm theory To make matters worse scholars in Education internationally and in South Africa have till very recently eschewed discussion as to the packaging or structuring of knowledge produced by Education research The book consists of chapters containing original research unpacking these desiderata from a variety of angles The authors had them served by a variety of methods from deductively argued position papers to empirical research the latter both quantitative survey research and qualitative

Development and the Right to Education in Africa A.C. Onuora-Oguno, 2018-05-22 This book is about the right to basic education and its impact on development in Africa It focuses on the elusive subject of litigating the right to education by examining jurisprudence from select African countries and India The project further analyses the various challenges that impede access to education with the attendant lack of political will to curb corruption and calls for the building of strong institutions and the involvement of both state and non state actors in driving development via education It also covers the scope for legal practitioners and policy makers and supports institutional framework in realizing the right to basic education

Teacher Empowerment Toward Professional Development and Practices Ismail Hussein Amzat, Nena P. Valdez, 2017-04-22 This book gathers a range of contributions from researchers and practitioners across borders with an emphasis on theoretical arguments and empirical data concerning teacher empowerment It propels readers to explore powerful teaching practices that can further advance the profession as a continuing priority in the system when appropriately utilized Further it strives to capture teachers readiness to improve their professional skills and responsive practices as a form of accountability for their teaching and students learning two aspects that are increasingly being judged by various stakeholders The book argues that teachers autonomous participation and engagement in relevant decision making activities and equitable access to continuing professional development opportunities are and should remain major priorities

Children in South African Families Nene Ernest Khalema, Monde Makiwane, Mzikazi Nduna, 2016-09-23 This book presents a comprehensive overview of African children s lives in times of transition transformation and change some twenty two years after political emancipation in South Africa With diverse family formations non marital childbearing and diverse parenting situations prevalent in South Africa the book covers both the conceptual and theoretical questions that explore the context of children s experiences It uses examples from a range of primary and secondary data sources to illustrate how resilience in children faced with adversity could be nurtured demonstrating the links between theory and practice and critically commenting on questions of epistemology by drawing on research with children within different African social and cultural contexts While the volume affirms the complexities of explaining child adversity or privilege it stresses the diversity of South African children s experiences and the importance of adopting both children s rights and Afro centric perspectives to account for the commonality and diversity of childhood and children s empowerment in diverse family systems The contributions also provide recommendations on how to respond and intervene in children s issues from both practical and policy levels in a dedicated manner to ensure that children are protected from harm nurtured to succeed and assisted during and after traumatic experiences This volume represents a valuable resource for scholars and students in the fields of humanities social science development studies and public health as well as policy makers child practitioners and child rights advocates
