Sage Comme Une Image:

Amour de lecteur Gérard Farasse, 2001 Pour voquer la richesse infinie des significations d'une oeuvre Borges aime rappeler Scot Erigène qui les compare la magique irisation des plumes du paon J'aurais souhaité l'Amour de lecteur que ce livre ressemblât à ce plumage quasi fabuleux Ton oeil exercé aurait pu y discerner la cruelle couleur du sang qui coule des plaies de Pr vert le rose de la pierre romaine qui dore les textes de Ponge le vert de l'herbe qui jamais ne flétrit dans l'oeuvre de Jaccottet le jaune substantiel qui colore les livres de Quignard ou encore le clat stellaire d'une peau qui sert de guide Desnos gar dans ses nuits sans compter toutes les couleurs que Kijno rassemble et qui pour la plupart nous sont inconnues elles n'existent que sur ses toiles A cette image trop chatoyante des plumes de l'oiseau de Junon ou de la charpe d'Iris je préfère pourtant celle plus prosaïque que des diaprures que provoque l'essence répandue dans les flaques des caniveaux et dont s'émerveille un gamin planté sur le trottoir Le voile de nouveau cet enfant dont on me fait remarquer qu'il s'obstine à revenir dans ce livre de chapitre en chapitre Je n'avais pas prévu qu'il serait là Sa présence je ne me l'explique pas Sauf supposer qu'il n'est que l'ombre portée du lecteur incliné sur ces pages persuadé comme je le suis que c'est cet enfant qui lit depuis toujours travers nous quelque chose que l'on soit avec la même motion la même fascination qu'il prouvait regarder les flaques d'eau grise enluminées

The Ground of the Image Jean-Luc Nancy, 2009-08-25 The renowned philosopher provides noteworthy contributions to themes connected with images imagination representation aesthetics and religion Journal of American Academy of Religion What is this power that lies in the depths and recesses of an image which is always only an impenetrable surface What secrets are concealed in the ground or in the figures of an image which never does anything but show just exactly what it is and nothing else How does the immanence of images open onto their unimaginable others their imageless origin In this collection of writings on images and visual art Jean-Luc Nancy explores such questions through an extraordinary range of references From Renaissance painting and landscape to photography and video from the image of Roman death masks to the language of silent film from Cleopatra to Kant and Heidegger Nancy pursues a reflection on visuality that goes far beyond the many disciplines with which it intersects He offers insights into the religious cultural political art historical and philosophical aspects of the visual relation treating such vexed problems as the connection between image and violence the sacred status of images and in a profound and important essay the forbidden representation of the Shoah In the background of all these investigations lies a preoccupation with finitude the unsettling forces envisaged by the images that confront us the limits that bind us to them the death that stares back at us from their frozen traits and distant intimacies In these vibrant and complex essays a central figure in European philosophy continues to work through some of the most important questions of our time

The Invention of the Visible Patrick Vauday, 2017-08-17 We live in a mediatized society a society one could call a society of images Working at the intersection of aesthetics and politics Patrick Vauday challenges the dominant assumptions of this society and its disposition towards images This challenge does not advocate repudiating images altogether but rather entreats us to see them in a different light This new way of thinking of images affords a glimpse into what images do and produce rather than viewing them as copies or mere representations Images are dynamic agents that are active in our world rather than simply empty reflections of it Rethinking the concept of the image in this fashion opens up new ways of interpreting and engaging with works of art This reconsideration of the role of images in society is the starting point for a new politics that considers the multiple and complex efficacies by which images act circulate and are created

Watching War on the Twenty-First Century Stage Clare Finburgh Delijani, 2017-07-27 What do we watch when we watch war Who manages public perceptions of war and how Watching War on the Twenty First Century Stage Spectacles of Conflict is the first publication to examine how theatre in the UK has staged debated and challenged the ways in which spectacle is habitually weaponized in times of war The battle for hearts and minds and the war of images are fields of combat that can be as powerful as armed conflict And today spectacle and conflict the two concepts that frame the book have joined forces via audio visual technologies in ways that are more powerful than ever Clare Finburgh s original and interdisciplinary interrogation provides a richly provocative account of the structuring role that spectacle plays in warfare engaging with the works of philosopher Guy Debord cultural theorist Jean Baudrillard visual studies specialist Marie Jos Mondzain and performance scholar Hans Thies Lehmann She offers coherence to a large and expanding field of theatrical war representation by analysing in careful detail a spectrum of works as diverse as expressionist drama documentary theatre comedy musical satire and dance theatre She demonstrates how features unique to the theatrical art namely the construction of a fiction in the presence of the audience can present possibilities for a more informed engagement with how spectacles of war are produced and circulated If we watch with more resistance we may contribute in significant ways to the demilitarization of images And what if this were the first step towards a literal demilitarization Quebec National Cinema Bill Marshall,2001 Instead he shows that while the allegory of nation marks Quebec film production it also leads to a tension between textual and contextual forces between homogeneity and heterogeneity and between major and minor modes of being and identity
