Comparative Analysis of Interim Measures - Interim Remedies (England & Wales) v Preservation Measures (China) Vivek Jain,Thomas Macey-Dare,Shengnan

Jia,2022-05-30 Interim remedies and provisional measures are a critical component of civil commercial litigation and arbitration The objective of this book is to set out not just the law and practice in relation to the primary interim remedies and preservation measures available in England Wales and China but also to provide the comparative analysis between the two jurisdictions concerning these interim measures The system for interim remedies in England Wales is well established but preservation measures in China are a work in progress and many differences exist between the two legal systems both in terms of theory and practice For example China does not recognise the general concept of interim measures if looked at from the English law point of view though it does have similar concepts of Property preservation evidence preservation and behaviour preservation China has recently adopted Chinese Civil Code 2020 and in writing this book the authors have incorporated all the relevant elements from the new Code There is no equivalent of Practice Directions in China and this book provides provide much needed clarity on this area drawing together the law and guidance which is presently scattered across numerous local courts in the different provinces This is an important book that is likely to have a significant impact on existing scholarship regarding interim remedies in England Wales and China and be of interest of all parties involved in cross border litigation Its readership will include industry professionals academics policy makers and government officials

Popular Science ,1955-03 Popular Science gives our readers the information and tools to improve their technology and their world The core belief that Popular Science and our readers share The future is going to be better and science and technology are the driving forces that will help make it better Assisted Reproduction Across Borders Merete Lie,Nina Lykke,2016-10-04 Today it often seems as though Assisted Reproductive Technologies ARTs have reached a stage of normalization at least in some countries and among certain social groups Apparently some practices for example in vitro fertilization IVF have become standard worldwide The contributors to Assisted Reproduction Across Borders argue against normalization as an uncontested overall trend This volume reflects on the state of the art of ARTs From feminist perspectives the contributors focus on contemporary political debates triggered by ARTs They examine the varying ways in which ARTs are interpreted and practised in different contexts depending on religious moral and political approaches Assisted Reproduction Across Borders embeds feminist analysis of ARTs across a wide variety of countries and cultural contexts discussing controversial practices such as surrogacy from the perspective of the global South as well as the global North as well as inequalities in terms of access to IVF This volume will appeal to scholars and students of anthropology ethnography philosophy political science history sociology film studies media studies literature art history area studies and interdisciplinary areas such as gender studies cultural studies and postcolonial studies Encyclopedia of Renaissance

Philosophy Marco Sgarbi,2022-10-27 Gives accurate and reliable summaries of the current state of research It includes entries on philosophers problems terms historical periods subjects and the cultural context of Renaissance Philosophy Furthermore it covers Latin Arabic Jewish Byzantine and vernacular philosophy and includes entries on the cross fertilization of these philosophical traditions A unique feature of this encyclopedia is that it does not aim to define what Renaissance philosophy is rather simply to cover the philosophy of the period between 1300 and 1650 Domestic Devotions in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Salvador Ryan,2020-05-28 Domestic devotion has become an increasingly important area of research in recent years with the publication of a number of significant studies on the early modern period in particular This Special Issue aims to build on these works and to expand their range both geographically and chronologically

This collection focuses on lived religion and the devotional practices found in the domestic settings of late medieval and early modern Europe. More particularly, it investigates the degree to which the experience of personal or familial religious practice in the domestic realm intersected with the more public expression of faith in liturgical or communal settings. Its broad geographical range, spanning northern, southern, central, and eastern Europe, includes practices related to Christianity, Judaism, and Islam. This Special Issue will be of interest to historians, art historians, medievalists, early modernists, historians of religion, anthropologists, and theologians, as well as those interested in the history of material religious culture. It also offers important insights into research areas such as gender studies, histories of the emotions, and histories of the senses. Guide to Microforms in Print K. G. Saur Books, K. G. Households and Financialization in Europe Marek Mikuš, Petra Rodik, 2021-06-10. Households and Financialization in Europe develops a processual, relational, and critical transdisciplinary approach to household financialization in Europe, utilizing a range of national and local case studies. It does so by drawing on debates in Marxist feminist and radical IPE, anthropology, and other fields. The book explores the household as simultaneously a micro-level social institution specializing in social reproduction, distribution, and other activities; a building block of larger economic and social structures; and an object of multiple systems of power/knowledge. Putting this conceptualization to use in original research, the authors identify geographically and historically situated ways in which financialization transforms households and their relationships with the wider economy and society. The book traces these transformations in case studies of variegated financialization in Eastern and Southern European semi-peripheries, where households have faced particularly severe financial issues since the global financial crisis, such as over-indebtedness and asset devaluation. Key themes recurring throughout the book include the key role of housing in household financialization; the co-constitutive relationship between financialization and social and spatial inequalities; specific patterns in the relations of financial actors and households in semi-peripheries; and the implications of semi-peripheral forms of real and financial accumulation for household financialization. With its transdisciplinary approach, this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of finance, financialization, household economics, international and global political economy, uneven development, economic anthropology, and economic sociology. Kilroy, 2015-09-28. Gerard Kilroy here draws on newly discovered manuscript sources to reveal Campion as a charismatic and affectionate scholar who was finding fulfilment as priest and teacher in Prague when he was summoned to lead the first Jesuit mission to England. The book offers fresh insights into the dramatic search for Campion, the populist nature of the disputations in the Tower, and the legal issues raised by his torture. It was the monarchical republic itself that made him the beloved champion of the English Catholic community Edmund Campion presents the most detailed and comprehensive picture to date of an historical figure whose loyalty and courage in the trial and on the scaffold swiftly became legendary across Europe
