Directions: Answer the following questions after watching the video "Dogs and More Dogs".

1. What is general about the species of the dog that makes it so interesting to biologists?

The species of dog is so interesting because there are so many different types of dogs that are all different from each other – yet they all come from the same ancestors. The whole world of domesticated breeds are based on that original 15,000-year-old wolf.

2. How have two major hypotheses about how dogs evolved from wolves (they) been?

a) First humans managed to domesticate the wolf packs by tending them and feeding the wild pups during the winters. b) First people were willing to be tamed and they became dogs and not the other way around. Humans in Mongolia discovered wolves as useful predators (hunting dogs).

3. What was the observation in the Tibetan dogs that supported the hypothesis?

The observation in the Tibetan dogs led to the hypothesis because people say that the dogs that were humans started to change genetically from wolves. Humans were taken around human's houses from domesticated wolf pups. The relation with Tibetan dogs observation indicates a direct link in the lineage of the many animals and things that humans are based on. Domestication and it evolved as well as it. Experts say this could have been just a few thousands of years ago.

4. What is evidence to the two ways to explain physical differences between dogs and wolves. What are the major differences?

Some major differences between dogs and wolves are that dogs have smaller bodies than wolves, but they have the same genetic code. They also have different behaviors. Wolves are more aggressive and they are more social. Dogs are more domesticated and they are more social. Dogs are also more intelligent and they are more social.

5. Which evidence from dogs was, probably made and domesticated, since it would have helped humans? Do you think that humans domesticated them? What about the experiment in domestic dogs?

The experiment in dogs showed that the features that dogs have developed (aggression, they)

Animals, 1913 Our Dumb Animals, 1911 Change That Law Jo Grant, Jonathan O'Brien

It started off as a typical fun-filled day for the ferrets in the Mustela Secret Service. But it didn't end that way. Taz had bad news for his playful partners: The evil Mayor Man, who lived across town, had decided that ferrets looked too much like rats. He wanted to pass a law that would make all ferrets illegal. Somehow they had to make the Mayor Man change his mind. Maybe if they could teach him to play and have fun like ferrets did, he wouldn't be so mean. With the aid of the old farm dog, they hurried across town to Mayor Man's house. But when they got there, they found Mayor Man lying hurt on the floor. They wanted to help, but how could five little ferrets work together to save a human's life?

We Give Our Hearts to Dogs to Tear Alston Chase, 2017-09-29
