Negotiating Civil-Military Space Marcia Byrom Hartwell, 2016-05-05 This book begins discussion at a point where many civil military conversations end Hartwell identifies underlying dynamics key issues and challenges that civilian and military organizations encounter when negotiating their roles in real and virtual volatile environments These include managing expectations understanding organizational missions and cultures building trust and exploring different approaches to violence The impact of applied technologies on decision making processes and interventions is discussed in terms of recent and future complex crises Linking earlier history to current discussions this study makes an important contribution by reframing issues and outlining strategies to avoid unintended consequences and more effectively protect civilians in future operations While geographic focus is on the Middle East Africa Central Asia and Asia Pacific the core issues are applicable to negotiating civil military relationships in a wide range of environments

The Rise of Africa's Middle Class Henning Melber, 2016-12-15 Across Africa a burgeoning middle class has become the poster child for the Africa rising narrative Ambitious aspirational and increasingly affluent this group is said to embody the values and hopes of the new Africa with international bodies ranging from the United Nations Development Programme to the World Bank regarding them as important agents of both economic development and democratic change This narrative however obscures the complex and often ambiguous role that this group actually plays in African societies Bringing together economists political scientists anthropologists and development experts and spanning a variety of case studies from across the continent this collection provides a much needed corrective to the received wisdom within development circles and provides a fresh perspective on social transformations in contemporary Africa TOPCIMA Paper T4 TEST OF PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCE IN MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTING Study Text for 2011-2012 BPP Learning Media, 2011-08-01 BPP Learning Media's Study Text for TOPCIMA will help you pass CIMA's Test of Professional Competence in Management Accounting case study exam In preparing the Text we have taken note of past papers questions put to the examiners the assessment methodology and previous case study exams The key to the case is to prepare and to practise Prepare by working through this Study Text before CIMA issues the pre seen data Later practise with the BPP Learning Media TOPCIMA Toolkit that is written around the real pre seen data The Toolkit contains analyses and exercises to get you thinking as well as a number of mock unseen questions to get you ready for the real thing Study Guide for CTET Paper 2 (Class 6 - 8 Teachers) Social Studies/ Social Science with Past Questions 5th Edition Disha Experts, 2019-10-21 Past Human Rights Violations and the Question of Indifference: The Case of Chile Hugo Rojas, 2021-12-13 This book contributes to the fields of memory and human rights It offers a novel and interdisciplinary theory on social indifference and in particular on the indifference of people to human rights violations committed against certain sectors of society in turbulent times These theoretical frameworks are explored empirically with respect to the Chilean case Through a blend of mixed methods the book explains the causes characteristics and social consequences of the current indifference of Chileans with respect to the human rights violations committed during the dictatorship of Augusto Pinochet 1973-90 The different findings are an invitation to rethink new challenges of transitional justice processes in fragmented societies and to strengthen public policies on human rights

When the Seas Rise Heather Dewar, University of Florida, 2016-05-18 University of Florida has an ambitious goal to harness the power of its faculty staff students and alumni to solve some of society's most pressing problems and to become a resource for the state of Florida the nation and the world Sea levels are rising around the globe and in Florida with its 1 200 miles of coastline and mostly flat topography this is of particular concern The state depends on coastal cities where 75 percent of the population lives and where more than four fifths of its economic activity takes place When economists tally up the likely costs of rising seas they rank Florida as the most vulnerable state in the nation and Miami as one of the most vulnerable major cities in the world When the Seas Rise takes us on an alarming journey from the dying coastal forests where salt killed tree trunks stand like sentinels of a retreating army to the high tide flooded streets of cities from St Augustine to Key West Meet the scientists at the University of Florida researchers in biology geology entomology horticulture urban and regional planning as well as other fields who along with other experts around the state are planning for the sea change already upon us and the greater changes to come They are working around the clock to predict how global climate shifts will affect the state to protect drinking water and slow the effects of flooding to develop new ways to farm to save our butterflies sea turtles Key deer and other endangered creatures to preserve the state's economy and to help coastal dwellers plan future

havens for the people and wildlife of Florida The stories chronicled in GATORBYTES span all colleges and units across the UF campus They detail the far reaching impact of UF s research technologies and innovations and the UF faculty members dedicated to them Gatorbytes describe how UF is continuing to build on its strengths and extend the reach of its efforts so that it can help even more people in even more places November 2019 Monthly Current Affairs with MCQs for Competitive Exams Disha Experts,2019-10-21 Istanbul Programme of Action for the LDCs (2011-2020) LDC IV Monitor,2014-10-17 Ambitious in nature the Istanbul Programme of Action IPoA for the Least Developed Countries LDCs adopted by the Fourth United Nations Conference on the LDCs UN LDC IV in 2011 sets out a development path for LDCs for the coming decade Successful implementation of the IPoA requires identification of delivery tools for specific targets provision of necessary financial and non financial resources and a strengthened monitoring mechanism LDC IV Monitor an independent partnership of eight interested organisations aims to add value by enhancing transparency accountability and efficiency of the official monitoring and review mechanism of the IPoA LDC IV Monitor s first set of two reports produced outside of the official intergovernmental process provide credible evidence based and policy oriented assessment of the delivery status of the promises contained in the IPoA The Synthesis Report derived from the critical analyses of the state of play concerning the IPoA presents the broad messages and key recommendations The volume on Analytical Perspectives addresses a wide spectrum of issues including articulation of a composite IPoA index building of productive capacity trade in goods and services delivery of the Millennium Development Goals MDGs flows of different forms of development finance and consequences of climate change The publications seek to contribute towards crafting national and international policies to support graduation of the LDCs through structural transformation of their economies Global Economic Cooperation Rajat Kathuria,Neetika Kaushal Nagpal,2015-11-23 This book discusses issues such as global financial crisis and global governance food security energy sustainability the global financial system trade and protectionism and growth and employment Since the outbreak of the financial as well as national debt crises in the Euro zone the focus of the G20 has shifted back to addressing short term issues These issues range from the dynamic effects of global imbalances and the appropriate degree of financial sector regulation to questions of austerity versus growth and the lack of a comprehensive framework for managing the international monetary system A further issue is the relevance of the G20 agenda for emerging market economies Global economic recovery still remains fragile and downside risks to global growth remain Additionally much of the agenda of the Seoul Development Consensus for shared growth launched in 2010 has yet to be fulfilled A key discussion point in the book therefore is how to make a tangible and significant difference in peoples lives by implementing an agenda of inclusive growth

The China-Japan Conflict over the Senkaku/Diaoyu Islands Anna Costa,2017-09-27 This book examines the foreign and security policies adopted by China and Japan since the 1970s in their competition over the Senkaku Diaoyu Islands in the East China Sea It charts the development of a dispute that has become a potential flashpoint for conflict between the two countries The book explains that while increasing nationalism in both China and Japan helps to fuel and sustain the dispute a key factor is that the leaderships in both countries find competition over the islands to be a convenient vehicle supporting their wider approach to foreign and security policy which is becoming increasingly assertive and potentially belligerent

Environmental Security and India Satabdi Das, 2022-08-26 This book examines environmental issues through the lens of security studies and presents a comprehensive analysis of Indian policy in dealing with threats posed by climate change This book Puts forward theoretical base for securitization of environmental issues incorporating different schools of thought Presents a survey of global environmental politics in general and the effects of climate change and its consequences for India s national security in particular Examines the politics involved in India s environmental policy at both the domestic and international levels Outlines key policy takeaways and possibilities for action that can help contain the threat of environmental change A comprehensive guide to a new and emerging dimension in Indian security policy this book will be essential reading for students and researchers of international relations security studies especially non traditional security public policy especially environmental policy and area studies

Kenya's Past as Prologue Fouere, Marie-Aude, Mwangi, Susan, 2015-06-16 During the run up to Kenya s 2013 general elections crucial political and civic questions were raised Could past mistakes especially political and ethnic related violence be avoided this time round Would the spectre of the 2007 post electoral violence positively or negatively affect debates and voting How would politicians electoral bodies such as the IEBC the Kenyan civil society and the international community weigh in on the elections More generally would the 2013 elections bear witness to the building up of an electoral culture in Kenya characterized by free and fair elections or would it show that voting is still weakened by political malpractices partisan opinions and emotional reactions Would Kenya s past be inescapable or would it prepare the scene for a new political order Kenya s Past as Prologue adopts a multidisciplinary perspective mainly built upon field based ethnography and a selection of case studies to answer these questions Under the leadership of the French Institute for Research in Africa Institut francais de recherche en Afrique IFRA political scientists historians and anthropologists explore various aspects of the electoral process to contribute in depth analyses of the last elections They highlight the structural factors underlying election and voting in Kenya including the political system culture and political transition They also interrogate the short term trends and issues that influence the new political order The book provides insight into specific case studies situations and contexts thus bringing nuances and diversity into focus to better assess Kenya s evolving electoral democracy
