My focus being that rather practitioners, not customers will provide a solution. Usually, we are given a document that says "the client wants a solution" or "the client is looking for a solution" and we are supposed to find a solution. But the client is not looking for a solution, they are looking for a way to solve a problem. So, we need to understand the problem and then we can find a solution. The client is not looking for a solution, they are looking for a way to solve a problem. So, we need to understand the problem and then we can find a solution.
