

OPENING PRAYER FOR SUNDAY SERVICE

“My God, we want to start this Sunday meeting in Your presence and that’s why we pray You this prayer.

We pray to ask You to be with us through our day, to be with us when we leave here, and to be with us forever and ever.

Allow Your light to illuminate our hearts and may Your faith make us better, happier, more understanding and more sensitive people.

Stay by our side on this holy Sunday, allow us to follow the path of light and may our hearts always be full of faith and hope.

Amen”

Kaunda,2022-12-13 This volume explores how Christians around the world have made sense of the meaning of suffering in the context of and post COVID 19. It interrogates the question of God suffering and structural injustice. Further, it discusses the Christian response to the compounded threats of racial injustice, climate injustice, wildlife injustice, gender injustice, economic injustice, political injustice, unjust in the distributions of the vaccine, and future challenges in the post COVID 19 era. The contributions are authored by scholars, students, activists, and clergy from various fields of inquiry and church traditions. The volume seeks to deepen Christian understanding of the meaning of suffering in the context of COVID 19 pandemic. It explores the fresh ways the pandemic can contribute to reconceptualizing human relations and specifically what it means to be human in the context of suffering, the place of or justifications of God in suffering, human place in creation, and the role of the church in re-articulating the theological meanings and praxes of suffering for today.
