Dayen explains how monopolization “supercharges inequality” and “hollows out communities” (Dayen, 11). The wealthy, CEOs and bankers, use their money to make more money, for example, rather than investing money into factories, which would create jobs. As a result, money tends to be concentrated in urban areas, and rural areas end up underdeveloped and increasingly isolated. The anger and “discontent” rural people feel is then displaced. As Dayen puts it, “political opportunists use immigrants and foreigners as scapegoats to explain away the inequity” (Dayen, 11). I think Robin Kelley says something like this in his article on Cedric Robinson. Kelley quotes Robinson as saying that capitalism “exaggerate[s] regional, subcultural, and dialectical differences into ‘racial’ ones” (Kelley). Is Dayen’s reference to a “geography of discontent” an example of exaggerating regional differences?

- ⚡ All the length requirements (word and sentence) are met.
- ⚡ There is one, and only one, question asked. The question is about the text(s), and not a question about something unrelated, or a question about an imaginary reader's mental state.
- ⚡ There is at least one textual citation. There are no overly lengthy quotations.

Andrea Smith says that anti-black racism is a "pillar" of white supremacy. She says that anti-black racism follows a "logic of slavery" (Smith, 2). What that means is that, in a white supremacist society, black people are a permanent source of exploitable labor. That is why she says that anti-black racism is the "anchor of capitalism."

Does that line of thought illustrate what Cedric Robinson meant by "racial capitalism"? In "What Did Cedric Robinson Mean by Racial Capitalism?" Robin Kelley quotes Robinson as saying that capitalism turns "differences into 'racial' ones" (Kelley, para. 5). Robinson says that even during feudalism there was slave labor, only the slaves were at that time Europeans (what we would call "white people" today).

A New Writing Classroom Patrick Sullivan,2014-07-15 In A New Writing Classroom Patrick Sullivan provides a new generation of teachers a means and a rationale to reconceive their approach to teaching writing calling into question the discipline s dependence on argument Including secondary writing teachers within his purview Sullivan advocates a more diverse exploratory and flexible approach to writing activities in grades six through thirteen A New Writing Classroom encourages teachers to pay more attention to research in learning theory transfer of learning international models for nurturing excellence in the classroom and recent work in listening to teach students the sort of dialogic stance that leads to higher order thinking and more sophisticated communication The conventional argumentative essay is often a simplistic form of argument widely believed to be the most appropriate type of writing in English classes but other kinds of writing may be more valuable to students and offer more important kinds of cognitive challenges Focusing on listening and dispositions or habits of mind as central elements of this new composition pedagogy A New Writing Classroom draws not just on composition studies but also on cognitive psychology philosophy learning theory literature and history making an exciting and significant contribution to the field

Resources in Education ,1998 Writing Essays Harrison Stewart,AI,2025-03-06 Writing Essays is a comprehensive guide designed to transform the daunting task of essay writing into an achievable skill This language arts textbook focuses on fundamental elements such as crafting strong thesis statements developing well structured paragraphs and supporting arguments with credible evidence. It emphasizes that effective essay writing is not merely a formulaic exercise but a dynamic process of critical thinking. The book draws upon the historical context of rhetoric and argumentation from ancient Greeks to modern scholars, adapting these principles to contemporary academic and professional writing. The book argues that mastering essay writing enhances communication skills applicable in various settings. It guides readers through each stage of the essay writing process, beginning with an introduction to core concepts and the importance of audience awareness. Dedicated chapters explore thesis statements, paragraph construction, and evidence-based argumentation, culminating in refining writing through revision strategies and stylistic considerations. Practical exercises and examples are integrated throughout to reinforce learning, making it a valuable resource for students and anyone seeking to improve their persuasive writing abilities. Writing Essays uniquely emphasizes critical thinking and audience awareness, encouraging writers to develop their own voice and tailor arguments effectively. Rather than providing rigid rules, it promotes an active approach to writing, emphasizing creativity and critical analysis. The book progresses logically, building from basic concepts to more complex elements of essay construction, ensuring a solid foundation in academic writing.
