As I stood before the crowded auditorium, some faces were familiar, and others were strangers. I felt my palms get sweaty, and my forehead began to dampen. The lights were blinding, and the silence was deafening. I stood up to the mic with my back ramrod straight.

In a squeaky voice, the words quietly poured out. Whose voice was that I could hear echoing in my ears? It was mine. I needed to build up more courage.

Suddenly, out of nowhere, I heard a voice that saved me from my petrified body. "Ladies and gentlemen, this is just practice before the big slam poetry day." Relief flooded over me. As I walked off the stage, I knew I had time to practice.

After much practice, the big day arrived.

I heard my name and stepped up to the mic with more confidence than before. I emerged like a lion this time. I was a powerful and animated poet, reciting every word without my paper in hand. Here is what slam poetry is supposed to be!
