Cultures of Work, the Neoliberal Environment and Music in Higher Education Sally Macarthur, Julja Szuster, Paul Watt, 2024-03-29 This edited book considers the impact of neoliberalism on music teaching research and scholarship in a higher education context As a subject that bears little resemblance to other university practical disciplines and fares poorly in a model driven by economics the book considers whether musicology is a public good or a threatened species It contemplates what musicology can usefully contribute to a paradigm driven by economics and questions whether it is ever possible to recover an ideal civil subject in neoliberal music academia Contributions investigate what it means to build music research capacity in innovative ways such as forging cross cultural relationships subverting conventional notions of quality and value replacing them with knowledges and values that guide Indigenous intellectual traditions and whether interventions into the legacy of colonialism are truly ever possible in neoliberal higher education institutions that celebrate difference and diversity while reinforcing social inequities The book also explores the relationships between gender and music music research training and scholarship and whether the interdisciplinarity championed by the university is ever workable Finally it undertakes a cross disciplinary new materialist reading of a canonical musical work offering a radically new perspective The book will appeal to students and scholars of music education musicology higher education studies and the creative arts more broadly The Rise of Everyday Design Monica Penick, Christopher Long, Harry Ransom Center, 2019-01-01 This fresh look at the Arts and Crafts Movement charts its origins in reformist ideals its engagement with commercial culture and its ultimate place in everyday households Fundamentals of Water Pollution Daniel A. Vallero, 2024-09-27 Water Pollution Calculations Quantifying Pollutant Formation Transport Transformation Fate and Risks provides a comprehensive collection of relevant real world water pollution calculations The book's author explains in detail how to measure and assess risks to human populations and ecosystems exposed to water pollutants The text covers water pollution from a multivariate systems approach bringing in hydrogeological climatological meteorological processes health and ecological impacts and water and wastewater treatment and prevention After first reviewing the physics chemistry and biology of water pollution the author explores both groundwater and surface waters This is followed by an in depth look at water quality indicators measurements models and water engineering Groundwater remediation risk assessment and green engineering round out the text with forward thinking ideas towards sustainability This invaluable reference offers a practical tool for those needing a precise and applicable understanding of different types of water pollution calculations Includes applications of theory to real world problems with personalized and customized examples of calculations to prepare exams guidance documents and correspondence Walkthroughs and derivation of equations enhance knowledge so that complex water pollution concepts can be more easily grasped Explains processes and mechanisms providing an understanding of how pollutants are formed transported transformed deposited and stored in the environment

Boundary Spanners of Humanity R.S. Zaharna, 2021-12-09 Boundary Spanners of Humanity introduces an expansive pan human evolutionary perspective of communication and public diplomacy that can enhance global collaboration R S Zaharna reveals how contemporary communication models are based on a nineteenth century mindset of separateness that divided people into mutually exclusive cultural and national categories That mindset reinforces human divisions and undermines our current efforts for global collaboration In a radical break from conventional thinking Zaharna draws upon multiple disciplines from ancient cosmologies to neurobiology to introduce three communication logics that can leverage human diversity and revolutionize how we collaborate globally The Poems of Optatian Linda Jones Hall, 2024-01-11 For the first time the poems and accompanying letters of Publilius Optatianus Porfyrius Optatian are published here with a translation and detailed commentary along with a full introduction to Optatian's work during this period Optatian was sent into exile by Constantine sometime after the Emperor's ascent to power in Rome in 312 AD Hoping to receive pardon

Optatian sent a gift of probably twenty design poems to Constantine around the time of the ruler's twentieth anniversary 325-326 AD To enable the reader to experience the multiple messages of the poems the Latin text is presented near the English translation with any related design close by Some poems laid out on a grid of up to 35 letters across and down have an interwoven poem marking key letters in the primary poem thereby revealing a highlighted image Some designs include the Chi Rho or numerals created from V's and X's to mark imperial anniversaries Other previously unrecognised designs seem to represent senatorial imperial military or bureaucratic motifs or to derive from coin images Shape poems representing a water organ an altar and a panpipe reveal their relevance immediately The introduction and commentary elucidate literary allusions from over 100 authors lines from Vergil Ovid Lucan Silius Italicus Statius and lesser known writers abound and mythological references mostly to the Muses and Apollo Optatian's prestige as an official in both Greece and Rome is well attested these poems mark Optatian as a fascinating writer of his time holding onto the classical past while acknowledging Christian symbolism

Theater as Data Miguel Escobar Varela, 2021-08-02 In Theater as Data Miguel Escobar Varela explores the use of computational methods and digital data in theater research He considers the implications of these new approaches and explains the roles that statistics and visualizations play Reflecting on recent debates in the humanities the author suggests that there are two ways of using data both of which have a place in theater research Data driven methods are closer to the pursuit of verifiable results common in the sciences and data assisted methods are closer to the interpretive traditions of the humanities The book surveys four major areas within theater scholarship texts not only playscripts but also theater reviews and program booklets relationships both the links between fictional characters and the collaborative networks of artists and producers motion the movement of performers and objects on stage and locations the coordinates of performance events venues and touring circuits Theater as Data examines important contributions to theater studies from similar computational research including in classical French drama collaboration networks in Australian theater contemporary Portuguese choreography and global productions of Ibsen This overview is complemented by short descriptions of the author's own work in the computational analysis of theater practices in Singapore and Indonesia The author ends by considering the future of computational theater research underlining the importance of open data and digital sustainability practices and encouraging readers to consider the benefits of learning to code A web companion offers illustrative data programming tutorials and videos

The School of Hillah and the Formation of Twelver Shi'i Islamic Tradition Aun Hasan Ali, 2023-06-15 Against the background of long standing narratives in which Twelver Shi'ism is viewed as fundamentally authoritarian The School of Hillah and the Formation of Twelver Shi'i Islamic Tradition builds upon recent scholarship in the fields of Religious Studies Anthropology and History to argue that Twelver Shi'ism is better understood as a discursive tradition At a conceptual level this solves the basic problem of how to integrate the extraordinary diversity of Twelver Shi'ism across time and space into a single historical category without engaging in a normative assessment of its underlying essence Furthermore in light of this conception of tradition the School of Hillah stands out as a seminal period in the archive of Twelver Shi'ism though it has seldom been recognized as such in European language scholarship Insofar as it gave birth to a conversation that would prove capable of encompassing the dynamism of Twelver Shi'ism the School of Hillah should be considered the formative period of Twelver Shi'i tradition Moreover when the tradition is conceptualized in this manner it is a bulwark against the very authoritarianism by which Twelver Shi'ism has been characterized for so long

Handbook of Research on Educational Technology Integration and Active Learning Keengwe, Jared, 2015-05-31 As today's teachers prepare to instruct a new generation of students the question is no longer whether technology should be integrated into the classroom but only how Forced to combat shorter attention spans and an excess of stimuli teachers sometimes see technology as a threat rather than a potential enhancement to traditional teaching methods The Handbook of Research on Educational Technology Integration and Active Learning explores the need for new professional development opportunities for teachers and educators as they utilize emerging technologies to enhance the learning experience Highlighting the advancements of ubiquitous computing authentic learning and student centered instruction this book is an essential reference source for educators academics students researchers and librarians

The Role of Civil Society in Transitional Justice Selbi

Durdiyeva, 2023-09-01 This book examines how civil society engages with transitional justice in Russia demonstrating a broad range of roles civil society can undertake while operating in a restrictive political context Based on sociolegal research the study focuses on three types of civil society groups dealing with the legacies of the Soviet repression in Russia a prominent organisation that works on recovering historical truth the International Memorial a parish of the Orthodox Church of Russia operating at a former mass execution and mass burial site the Church at Butovo and contentious groups that could hinder attempts at reckoning and promote state narratives built on the Stalinist and WWII victory myths This book explores an often overlooked case of Russia's transitional justice from below It provides insights into how even in authoritarian contexts civil society can adopt imaginative piecemeal and at times unconventional ways of seeking justice outside and in the absence of official and institutionalised transitional justice measures This book will appeal to scholars of transitional justice memory studies human rights and democratic and civil society theory as well as policymakers and practitioners in these fields and others with interests in Russian and post Soviet studies
