The book's introduction sets the stage by presenting results of a survey of athletic administrators regarding key issues and concerns accompanied by insights from current and past NIAAA executive directors. The opening chapters highlight the thoughtful planning and preparational investment required to create and sustain an athletic program that remains true to its core values, nurtures and challenges student athletes and is bolstered by coaches and support personnel who champion athletes' growth and success. The benefits of participating in school-based athletics and engaging in multiple sports are emphasized. Subsequent chapters highlight the importance of fostering positive connections between administrators, coaches, and the communities who serve and support the program. Parents, medical professionals, security staff, boosters, and local businesses must be continuously engaged, informed, and appreciated for their support. The next chapters address the daily responsibilities of the job including budgeting and purchasing, managing facilities and equipment, scheduling contests and transportation, and hosting events. The final chapter, a notable new addition to the text, emphasizes the need to maintain a work-life balance despite athletic administrators' heavy workload and long hours. It will help you prioritize duties, delegate tasks, streamline processes, and manage duties and meetings more efficiently to maximize your productivity and still preserve quality time for family, friends, and other interests. Throughout this resource, you will find realistic samples such as a strategic plan, annual budgets, and multiyear purchasing plans, competition schedules, and athletic program policies concerning diversity, social media usage, and transportation. NIAAA's Guide to Interscholastic Athletic Administration is packed with information, advice, examples, and tools from experienced athletic administrators. With this resource, you'll be well equipped to excel in the complex, demanding, and rewarding role of athletic administrator.

Pastoral Care and Community in Late Medieval Germany Deeana Copeland Klepper, 2022-12-15 Pastoral Care and Community in Late Medieval Germany explores how local religious culture was constructed in medieval European Christian society through close study of a set of neglected late fourteenth century manuscripts The Mirror of Priests is a pastoral work written by Albert an Augustinian canon from the Bavarian market town of Diessen to guide local priests in their work with parishioners Multiple versions of the text in Albert s own hand survive and by comparing them Deeana Copeland Klepper shows how ostensibly universal religious ideals and laws were adapted interpreted and repurposed by those given responsibility to implement them thereby crafting distinctive local expressions of Christianity The vision of Christian community that emerges from Albert s pastoral guide is one in which the messiness of ordinary life is evident Albert s imagined parish was marked out by geographic and legal boundaries property and jurisdictional rights tithes and sacramental responsibility as well as symbolic realities By situating the Mirror of Priests within Albert s physical and conceptual spaces Klepper affirms the centrality of the parish and its community for those living under the rubric of Christianity especially outside of large cities Pivoting between the materiality of texts and the sociocultural contexts of an overlooked manuscript tradition Pastoral Care and Community in Late Medieval Germany offers fresh insights into the role of parish priests the pastoral manual genre and late medieval religious life
