Sold Out Alex Molnar, Faith Boninger, 2015-08-07 If you strip away the rosy language of school business partnership win win situation giving back to the community and the like what you see when you look at corporate marketing activities in the schools is example after example of the exploitation of children for financial gain Over the long run the financial benefit marketing in schools delivers to corporations rests on the ability of advertising to brand students and thereby help insure that they will be customers for life This process of branding involves inculcating the value of consumption as the primary mechanism for achieving happiness demonstrating success and finding fulfillment Along the way branding children just like branding cattle inflicts pain Yet school districts desperate for funding sources often eagerly welcome marketers and seem not to recognize the threats that marketing brings to children s well being and to the integrity of the education they receive Given that all ads in school pose some threat to children it is past time for considering whether marketing activities belong in school Schools should be ad free zones
