Controversial Books in K-12 Classrooms and Libraries Randy Bobbitt, 2019-10-04 Controversial Books in K 12 Classrooms and Libraries Challenged Censored and Banned analyzes the history of controversy surrounding assigned reading in K 12 classrooms and books available in school libraries Randy Bobbitt outlines the history of book banning and controversy in the United States stemming from 1950s conservative Cold War values of patriotism and respect for authority and ramping up through the 1960s and onward as media coverage and parental intervention into the inner workings of schools increased The author claims that sensitive topics including sexuality suicide and drug use do not automatically imply the glorification of deviant behavior but can be used constructively to educate students about the reality of life Bobbitt argues that in an effort to shield children from the dangers of controversial issues parents and administrators are depriving them of the ability to discover and debate values that are inconsistent with their own and those around them teaching instead that avoidance of different viewpoints is the solution Scholars of education communication literature and policy will find this book especially useful

SRDS Consumer Magazine Advertising Source ,2004-12 The City

Since 9/11 Keith Wilhite, 2016-03-04 Charting the intersection of aesthetic representation and the material conditions of urban space The City Since 9 11 posits that the contemporary metropolis provides a significant context for reassessing theoretical concerns related to narrative identity home and personal precarity In the years since the September 11 attacks writers and filmmakers have explored urban spaces as contested sites shaped by the prevailing discourses of neoliberalism homeland security and the war on terror but also haunted by an absence in the landscape that registers loss and prefigures future menace In works of literature film and television the city emerges as a paradoxical space of permanence and vulnerability and a convergence point for anxieties about globalization structural inequality and apocalyptic violence Building on previous scholarship addressing trauma and the spectacle of terror the contributors also draw upon works of philosophy urban studies and postmodern geography to theorize how literary and visual representations expose the persistent conflicts that arise as cities rebuild in the shadow of past ruins Their essays advance new lines of argument that clarify art's role in contemporary debates about spatial practices gentrification cosmopolitanism memory and history nostalgia the uncanny and the abject postmodern virtuality the politics of realism and the economic and social life of cities The book offers fresh readings of familiar post 9 11 novels such as Jonathan Safran Foer's Extremely Loud Incredibly Close but it also considers works by Teju Cole Joseph O'Neill Silver Krieger Colum McCann Ronald Sukenick Jonathan Lethem Thomas Pynchon Colson Whitehead Paul Auster William Gibson Amitav Ghosh and Katherine Boo In addition The City Since 9 11 includes essays on the films Children of Men Hugo and the adaptation of Extremely Loud Incredibly Close chapters on the television series The Bridge The Killing and The Wire and an analysis of Michael Arad's Reflecting Absence and the 9 11 Memorial

Customer Engagement Roderick J. Brodie, Linda D. Hollebeek, Jodie Conduit, 2015-12-14 How customers and consumer behavior have been changing due to technology and other forces is of prime interest This book addresses the central questions regarding new emerging consumer behavior how does social media affect this behavior how and at what points do emotions affect consumer decisions and what triggers this is How should engagement be conceptualized defined and measured How do social media and other marketing activities create engagement The book draws on the rich extensive knowledge of the authors who are pioneers in the field The book's editors have identified the weakness in the current knowledge and aim to address this gap by touching on significant conceptual and empirical contributions to this emerging literature stream providing readers with a comprehensive contemporary perspective of customer engagement The book also endeavors to develop a richer narrative around the notion of social media and customer engagement and the non monetary notion of social media within new media based social networks

Design and Realization of Novel GaAs Based Laser Concepts Tim David Germann, 2013-02-26
Semiconductor heterostructures represent the backbone for an increasing variety of electronic and photonic devices for applications including information storage communication and material treatment to name but a few Novel structural and material concepts are needed in order to further push the performance limits of present devices and to open up new application areas This thesis demonstrates how key performance characteristics of three completely different types of semiconductor lasers can be tailored using clever nanostructure design and epitaxial growth techniques All aspects of laser fabrication are discussed from design and growth of nanostructures using metal organic vapor phase epitaxy to fabrication and characterization of complete devices

The Development of Child Protection Law and Policy Kieran Walsh, 2020-04-02
This book examines how child protection law has been shaped by the transition to late modernity and how it copes with the ever changing concept of risk The book traces the evolution of the contemporary child protection system through historical changes assessing the factors that have influenced the development of legal responses to abuse over a 130 year period It does so by focussing on the Republic of Ireland where child protection has become emblematic of wider social change The work draws on a wide range of primary and secondary sources including legislation case law and official and media reports of child protection inquiries It also utilises insights developed through an extensive examination of parliamentary debates on child protection matters These materials are assessed through the lens of critical discourse analysis to explore the relationship between law social policy and social theory as they effect child protection While the book utilises primarily Irish sources this multidisciplinary approach ensures the argument has international applicability The book will be a valuable resource for all those with an interest in the development of child protection law

Rights, Virtue, and Others in MacIntyre Joel Pierce, 2024-08-22 Rights Virtue and Others in MacIntyre Community After the Fall demonstrates that human rights are not anathema to MacIntyre's vision of practices virtue and tradition but rather are necessary to stop that vision being appropriated in problematic ways and to help it take those outside one's own community seriously This work brings MacIntyre into extended conversation with historians such as Brian Tierney and Charles Reid as well as with postcolonial thinkers and theologians such as Edward Said and Willie James Jennings demonstrating that each has something to say to MacIntyre about the limits of virtue's vision MacIntyre's readings of historical theologians including Ockham and Vitoria are brought into question with each being shown to demonstrate how rights can act to complete rather than undermine MacIntyre's program What emerges is a MacIntyrean understanding of rights in which they act as historically discerned constraints against the excesses of institutional power
