

Transcript of a Speech from the Closing Ceremony of the XV International AIDS Conference (AIDS 2004)

By Nelson Mandela
From Henry J. Kaiser Family Foundation

July 16, 2004

Thank you again for asking me to participate in the closing ceremony of your International AIDS Conference. It seems that I have reached a level of seniority, which entitles me to participate in closing ceremonies. Despite the fact that I am an old age pensioner with no power and with even less influence, as you will know I have announced my retirement from public life, which means that I should not be here today. However, the fight against AIDS is one of the greatest challenges the world faces at the start of the 21st century. I cannot rest until I'm certain that the global response is sufficient to turn the tide of the epidemic. The importance of tackling this issue should not be undermined by the many other problems that confront a global society today. In the course of human history there has never been a greater threat than the HIV/AIDS epidemic. Our attention to this issue cannot be distracted or diverted by problems that are apparently more pressing. History will surely judge us harshly if we do not respond with all the energy and resources that we can bring to bear in the fight against HIV/AIDS. Last night we introduced you to our 46664 sexual campaign. We reminded you how they are [Inaudible] to reduce us to prison numbers and so reduce our humanity. We were kept alive by our strong sense of hope and the firm knowledge that the world would not forget us.

School Closing Ceremony Speech:

Concepts of Aesthetic Education Yasuo Imai, Christoph Wulf, 田口雅生/33, 2005 The Human Side of School Change Robert Evans, 2001-01-18 In this insightful look at school reform Robert Evans examines the real life hurdles to implementing innovation and explains how the best intended efforts can be stalled by educators who too often feel burdened and conflicted by the change process He provides a new model of leadership along with practical management strategies for building a framework of cooperation between leaders of change and the people they depend upon to implement it

Appearances and activities of leading Chinese officials during 1978 ,1979 Jesuit Education at the Crossroads Juan Cristóbal Garcia-Huidobro, 2021-08-26 The Jesuit educational tradition has existed for more than 450 years and today there are more than 150 Jesuit primary and secondary schools in North and Latin America Jesuit Education at the Crossroads tackles the lack of research on these schools by bringing together scattered studies and asking experts on the issues about the current challenges for Jesuit education The landscape pictured by this collection of essays suggests that Jesuit primary and secondary education is at a historical moment analogous to a crossroads After a crisis between the 1960s and 80s these schools were consolidated establishing themselves in national and international networks But the twenty first century has brought new challenges For instance the secularization of culture is demanding an update of the Jesuit educational project leadership is rapidly shifting from Jesuits to lay men and women with multiple issues at stake and researchers and policymakers are asking new questions about the role of these schools and school networks for equity and inclusion in each region The book touches on these and other points that will be very relevant for all who are interested in the Jesuit educational tradition Appearances and Activities of Leading Chinese Officials ,1978 Meeting Once More Elise M. Prébin, 2013-05-06 Thoughtfully written drawing on her own life experience as well as her anthropological training Pr bin provides us with a new window into the complex world of trans national adoption She weaves together kinship media and globalization as well as recent Korean history to offer us lessons about today s adoption practices Barbara Katz Rothman author of Weaving A Family Untangling Race and Adoption A great mobilization began in South Korea in the 1990s adult transnational adoptees began to return to their birth country and meet for the first time with their birth parents sometimes in televised encounters which garnered high ratings What makes the case of South Korea remarkable is the sheer scale of the activity that has taken place around the adult adoptees return and by extension the national significance that has been accorded to these family meetings Informed by the author s own experience as an adoptee and two years of ethnographic research in Seoul Meeting Once More sheds light on an understudied aspect of transnational adoption the impact of adoptees on their birth country and especially on their birth families The volume offers a complex and fascinating contribution to the study of new kinship models migration and the anthropology of media Elise Pr bin was born in South Korea in 1978 was raised in France and is now living in New York City with her husband and daughter In 2006 she obtained her PhD at

University of Paris X Nanterre in social anthropology was a postdoc and lecturer at Harvard University from 2007 to 2009 and served as Assistant Professor at Hanyang University South Korea from 2010 to 2011 She is now an independent scholar
