ABSTRACT

With the introduction of powerful and high-speed personal computers, proficient techniques for infrastructure development and management have advanced, of which Geoinformatics technology is of great significance. An attempt has been made for broad mapping and analysis of existing infrastructures in the context of planning scheme in Paschim Medinipur district, and to delineate the development zones of educational infrastructure facilities. The thematic layers considered in this study are infrastructure accessibility, type and condition of classroom and number of classroom allocated for the educational system at primary and upper primary level. Moran's I statistics was used to estimate the spatial distribution of elementary infrastructure across the district. All these themes and their individual features were then assigned weights according to their relative importance in educational development and corresponding normalized weights were obtained based on the Saaty's analytical hierarchy process. The thematic layers were finally integrated in GIS software based on multi-criteria approach to yield educational development infrastructure index. Moran's I statistics shows girl's toilet, electric and boundary wall facility within the district are clustered in pattern at primary level. At the upper primary level, only electric and computer facilities shows the clustered distribution across the district. However, four different zones have been delineated, namely "very good", "good", "moderate" and "poor". The block covered by very good elementary educational infrastructure facility is Daspur-I and Dantan-II at primary level and Keshiary block at upper primary level in Paschim Medinipur district. Finally, it is concluded that the Geoinformatics technology is very efficient and useful for the identification of infrastructure development.

1. Introduction

Education is a decisive determinant of economic and social expansion, and also household livelihoods and food security status. Empirical studies also demonstrated that investment in elementary education amplifies the productivity in all the sectors of the economy much more than other levels of education, and that economic returns to investment in primary education are greater than those arising from other levels of schooling [1]. The development of education depends on large number of factors including the infrastructure resources available to a school. School infrastructure, such as the site, buildings, furniture and equipments contribute to a learning environment [2]. Study conducted by Ayeni and Adelabu [2], mentioned that the classrooms in most of the schools were inadequate in terms of decency, space, ventilation and insulation from heat; the incinerators and urinal were not conveniently placed, and the school plant was poorly maintained; these combined deficiencies constituted a major gap in the quality of learning environment. Hence, the school infrastructure management and planning is signifying the regional planning agencies to improve the educational facility in a particular area.

After nineties, secondary and higher education in India is experiencing structural changes due to the process of globalization [3]. The post nineties period witnessed a considerable increase in the infrastructure at tertiary level [4,5]. Nevertheless, any fundamental change has not been found in the structure and organisation of elementary education system which lags in the quality also. In India nearly 90 percent of schools at elementary level are run by government [6]. Most of the schools are situated in rural areas, and not have average criteria for quality education. It may be due to poor infrastructure such as

School Infrastructure Assessment Report:

Mud to bricks: A review of school infrastructure spending and delivery Carmen Abdoll, Conrad

Barberton, 2014-07-04 The Centre for Child Law commissioned this study by Cornerstone Economic Research to track school infrastructure spending and delivery The report written by Carmen Abdoll and Conrad Barberton makes the concerning finding that the national Department of Basic Education has woefully underspent the School Infrastructure Backlog grant for two years running In 2011 2012 spending was a little over 10 per cent and only at 23 per cent in 2012 2013 at the end of the third quarter The ASIDI target for the number of schools to be built in 2011 2012 and 2012 2013 was 49 However only 10 had been completed by the end of the first year They predict that if the DBE continues at the same delivery rate a realistic timeframe for the eradication of schools with inappropriate structures is probably 2023 24 They make recommendations which if followed could shorten the delay significantly This study shows the importance of monitoring and evaluating progress against court orders and out of court settlements to ensure that the right to a basic education is made real

Contextualising Rural Education in South African Schools ,2023-04-03 South Africa s democratic government inherited a divided and unequal system of education Under apartheid South Africa had nineteen different educational departments separated by race language geography and ideology This education system prepared learners in different ways for the positions they were expected to occupy in social economic and political life under apartheid and was funded and resourced in ways that favoured white people and disadvantaged black people who remain in the working class The newly elected democratic government in 1994 laid a foundation for a single national education system Twenty five years after the dawn of democracy education is still in a parlous state in many communities in South Africa but it is in the rural areas mainly in the former homelands that learners are most disadvantaged Contributors are Olufemi Timothy Adigun Oluwatoyin Ayodele Ajani Alan Bhekisisa Buthelezi Joyce Phikisile Dhlamini Bongani Thulani Gamede Samantha Govender Lawrence Kehinde Nontobeko Prudence Khumalo Primrose Ntombenhle Khumalo Azwidohwi Philip Kutame Manthekeleng Linake Sive Makeleni Nkhensani Maluleke Bothwell Manyonga Mncedisi Christian Maphalala Takalani Mashau Hlengiwe Romualda Mhlongo Rachel Gugu Mkhasibe Dumisani Wilfred Mncube Nicholus Tumelo Mollo Ramashego Shila Mphahlele Fikile Mthethwa Grace Matodzi Muremela Edmore Mutekwe Nokuthula Hierson Ndaba Clever Ndebele Thandiwe Nonkululeko Ngema Phiwukhle Ngubane Sindile Ngubane Dumisani Nzima Livhuwani Peter Ramabulana and Maria Tsakeni

International Aid and Private Schools for the Poor Pauline Dixon,2013-01-01 Pauline Dixon has intellectual rigour and an openness to new ideas together with compassion and practicality A great and unusual combination which I admire enormously Dame Sally Morgan Adviser to the Board Absolute Return for Kids and former chief advisor to Tony Blair UK This fine book has a powerful message for policymakers and donors the quality of schools matters even in poor countries hence the poor are abandoning failed state schools and enrolling their kids in low cost private schools Instead of trying to close them down the state and donors would do well to invest in children through vouchers and cash transfers and give parents a choice rather than create more atrocious monopolistic state schools where teachers are absent and unaccountable Gurcharan Das commentator and author India Unbound and former CEO of Proctor and Gamble Asia This is a must read book for anyone interested in the plight of poor children particularly for those readers concerned with learning about culturally sensitive and proven ways to reach out and help less fortunate children in developing countries I was fascinated and outraged by the compelling stories and actual data that Dixon shares in this gem of an expos Most readers will similarly be shaken and incensed by the failure of billions of dollars spent on state schooling in Africa and India Dixon makes a compelling case for the value and contributions of low cost private schools in slums and low income areas in developing countries After reading this book I am now a believer Steven I Pfeiffer Professor Florida State University US This fascinating volume challenges the widely held belief that the state should supply finance and regulate schooling in developing countries Using India as an example Dr Pauline Dixon examines the ways in which private for profit schools might serve as a successful alternative to state run systems of education in impoverished communities around the world The book begins with a through history of India s government run schools based on the traditional British model which are currently characterized by high levels of waste inefficiency and subpar student performance The author goes on to present comprehensive survey and census data along with analyses of different school management types and their effect on student achievement teacher attendance and quality of facilities The book also tackles the problem of inefficient allocation and use of international aid and offers recommendations on the development of new mechanisms for utilizing aid resources in support of low cost private schools This meticulously researched volume will appeal to students and professors of development studies political economy and international studies Policymakers and other officials with an interest in educational innovation will also find much of interest in this book
