Annual Report of the State Board of Education Rhode Island. State Board of Education,1902     Annual Report of the State Board of Education Rhode Island. Board of Education,1902     How Girls Achieve Sally A. Nuamah,2019-04-22

Winner of the Jackie Kirk Award Winner of the AESA Critics Choice Award Blazes new trails in the study of the lives of girls challenging all of us who care about justice and gender equity not only to create just and inclusive educational institutions but to be unapologetically feminist in doing so Seamlessly merging research with the stories and voices of girls and those who educate them this book reminds us that we should do better and inspires the belief that we can It is the blueprint we've been waiting for Brittney C Cooper author of Eloquent Rage Nuamah makes a compelling and convincing case for the development of the type of school that can not only teach girls but also transform them An essential read for all educators policymakers and parents invested in a better future Joyce Banda former President of the Republic of Malawi This bold and necessary book points out a simple and overlooked truth most schools never had girls in mind to begin with That is why the world needs what Sally Nuamah calls feminist schools deliberately designed to provide girls with achievement oriented identities And she shows how these schools would help all students regardless of their gender Educated women raise healthier families build stronger communities and generate economic opportunities for themselves and their children Yet millions of disadvantaged girls never make it to school and too many others drop out or fail Upending decades of advice and billions of dollars in aid Nuamah argues that this happens because so many challenges girls confront from sexual abuse to unequal access to materials and opportunities go unaddressed But it isn't enough just to go to school What you learn there has to prepare you for the world where you'll put that knowledge to work A compelling and inspiring scholar who has founded a nonprofit to test her ideas Nuamah reveals that developing resilience is not a gender neutral undertaking Preaching grit doesn't help girls it actively harms them Drawing on her deep immersion in classrooms in the United States Ghana and South Africa Nuamah calls for a new approach creating feminist schools that will actively teach girls how and when to challenge society's norms and allow them to carve out their own paths to success

The Grammar of School Discipline Hannah Carson Baggett, Carey E. Andrzejewski, 2021-05-18 The Grammar of School Discipline examines how seemingly discrete school discipline policies and practices constitute a particular grammar Removal Resistance and Reform Weaving numeric data with portraits of students and school practitioners the authors detail a nuanced landscape of school discipline in Alabama and its anti-Black foundations The removal of Black students can be traced to the antebellum construction of Blackness as criminal deviant and deserving of punishment A focus on resistance centers the agency that students and practitioners exercise despite anti-Black removal An exploration of specific reform efforts emphasizes that even the most well intentioned and well organized reforms are limited when the removal of students remains an option for practitioners The authors end with an appeal to educational stakeholders to repair the harms that these anti Black policies and practices inflict on students and communities and thus move towards repairing the damage that white supremacy inflicts on everyone s humanity
