Johannesburg, 1974 Reconstructive Surgery and Modernisation in Twentieth-Century South Africa Suryakanthie Chetty, 2023-07-28 This book traces the career of pioneering South African plastic and reconstructive surgeon Jack Penn from its beginnings during the Second World War It explores the establishment of Penn's private practice and his work in diverse countries including Gabon Japan and Israel as he sought to rectify the injury caused by conflict It also addresses his role on the President's Council established by Prime Minister P W Botha to introduce reform to the system of apartheid Penn's career is contextualised by modernisation which was a significant feature of twentieth century South Africa It was linked with race from the inception of the state in 1910 with racial segregation and paternalism Penn's work during the Second World War was part of a modernist bent by the state under Jan Smuts to take the lead in promoting science and technological development which continued during apartheid Modernisation was also fluid with state priority shifting between the two poles of development and security as apartheid policies were met with hostility both within the state and beyond its borders Within the context of decolonisation increasing black urbanisation required a balancing act on the part of the state to uphold the ideology of racial distinction while simultaneously addressing economic challenges and this was reflected in the reform initiatives under Botha Plastic and reconstructive surgery as evident in the work of Jack Penn is intertwined with this narrative of apartheid modernisation and reform It demonstrated Western prowess with medicine and development a perceived bulwark against Communism It also served as a means for the modernising apartheid state to initiate maintain or enhance alliances with other states in the facing of mounting isolation and international condemnation The career of Jack Penn then is a lens through which the contradictions complexities and anxieties of twentieth century South Africa are exposed

ACCCN's Critical Care Nursing Leanne Aitken,Andrea

Marshall, Wendy Chaboyer, 2016-01-04 With each edition ACCCN's Critical Care Nursing has built on its highly respected reputation. Its contributors aim to encourage and challenge practising critical care nurses and students to develop world class critical care nursing skills in order to ensure delivery of the highest quality care. Endorsed by the Australian College of Critical Care Nurses (ACCCN), this 3rd edition presents the expertise of foremost critical care leaders and features the most recent evidence based research and up to date advances in clinical practice, technology, procedures and standards. Expanded to reflect the universal core elements of critical care nursing practice, authors Aitken, Marshall and Chaboyer have retained the specific information that captures the unique elements of contemporary critical care nursing in Australia, New Zealand and other similar practice environments. Structured in three sections, ACCCN's Critical Care Nursing 3rd Edition addresses all aspects of critical care nursing including patient care and organisational issues while highlighting some of the unique and complex aspects of specialty critical care nursing practice such as paediatric considerations, trauma management and organ donation. Presented in three sections: Scope of Critical Care, Principles and Practice of Critical Care, Speciality Practice. Focus on concepts that underpin practice: essential physical, psychological, social and cultural care. New case studies elaborate on relevant care topics. Research vignettes explore a range of topics. Practice tips highlight areas of care particularly relevant to daily clinical practice. Learning activities support knowledge, reflective learning and understanding. Additional case studies with answers available on Evolve. NEW chapter on Postanaesthesia recovery. Revised coverage of metabolic and nutritional considerations for the critically ill patient. Aligned with the NEW ACCCN Standards for Practice.
