Department of Education and the National Institute of Literacy 32 million adults in the U S can t read Part of the reason is that 61% of low income families have no books at all in the home for their pre school children to read a crucial time when reading development takes place There is hope and it can be found in My Heartfelt Passion Saving our Nation one Child at a Time written by Jim Davidson nationally syndicated columnist who founded a unique literacy project called Bookcase for Every Child in his home town of Conway Arkansas This project has now spread to five other states They have given over 2 000 personalized bookcases and a starter set of books to pre school children being reared in low income families In the author s easy conversational style he takes us to the day he was born and moves forward to share the people events and experiences that led him to develop a heartfelt passion for underprivileged children He covers his personal history how some children are born with advantages while others are born with unspeakable disadvantages After reading this book and lays it aside anyone will know the ins and outs of organizing and starting a bookcase project in their own community that is sustainable and will make a difference Without a doubt this project can be replicated in every community in America and over time can become a tool to change the lives of preschool children They will then have enthusiasm and hope that come only to literate people who can function as contributing members of society

The Wisconsin Times ,1984 A Charter School Principal Story Barbara J. Smith,2024-03-18 What happens when a Canadian principal guided by the teachings of Fullan and Hargreaves takes on the role of school leader in an inner city charter school in the United States This inside story of a principal in the DC charter school system reveals much about the desire for educators and students to experience more than a life of multiple choice testing that tends to be so commonplace in these schools. While such a case adds to the mound of research that supports the change, it takes time. Findings, it nevertheless demonstrates the reality on a day to day basis of what is worth fighting for in schools. Student and teacher engagement and empowerment matter, and to get to such ends a school must fiercely focus on targets well beyond test scores.
